FOREWORD

PLEASE OPEN YOUR EYES!

I was deeply wounded when a ‘wise and learned man’ ridiculed the Holy Bible. I consider the Bible as my Father’s sacred book and cherish it as my greatest possession and my inheritance. If at all I possess any wisdom or knowledge, it is only through the Holy Bible. I was further wounded when my beloved Church praised such a person as greater than the greatest and, that he was made a bishop and principal of our theological seminary. How deeply will it hurt a common man?

I am blessed by God on several counts and, I am indebted to Him lock, stock and barrel for everything, particularly for two things. 1. The Loving God gave me a God-fearing mother who taught me how to pray. 2. The Holy Spirit dealt with me when I was 19 years old directly. He spoke to my mind several times. He gave me the “word of wisdom” and the “word of knowledge.” He taught them to me by the examples of beautiful revelations at the age of 65.

He also prompted me to write the books, “Rebellious House,” “Christians sans Christ” and “Latent Thumb Impression of God” for the glory of God. All these books are available in my blog ‘Bethel A. V. Thomas’, in English and Malayalam. All these revelations He did through a common man like me, ‘dust and ashes’! I did only one thing: prayed in the name of Jesus and nothing else!

About seven years back the Holy Spirit prompted me with a question, “If your father is ridiculed by someone will you tolerate it?” Promptly I answered, “No.” “Then how did you tolerate when your Heavenly Father was ridiculed?” I knew it was about the derogatory comments on the Holy Bible by Paulos Gregorios (PG) through his book, Paurashtha Christava Darshanam. I pretended that I did not follow the message. After a gap of seven months, the question was repeated. It pained me when I realised that ‘dust and ashes’ is prompted to do a job and this disobedient vermin is ignoring it. I felt sad. Jonah was a beloved prophet of God, here is a flea, yet disobeying God! Tearfully, I took the pen to write ‘DIABOLIC TOOLS.’ May the Good Lord forgive me for my imprudence!

Even then I was having two minds because he was dead and gone. Now what is the use of writing about his books? See how the Lord works! Immediately, a friend of mine gave me a book titled, ‘In His Master’s Path’ written by John D. Kunnath. As I took the book, I was prompted by the Holy Spirit that in a few seconds you are going to see a blasphemy! Believe me in ten seconds I read, “Paulos Gregorios was a second coming of Jesus Christ.”⁹ What a blasphemy! This book reveals another feature, although he died about 21 years ago, he is still doing his work in Denmark as a devil. “Anne Schandorf asserts that she often feels the spirit of Gregorios comes around and gives her advice in difficult matters.” She continues, “I went around my secret telephone (invoking the devil) to Paulos. What shall I do?

They are brothers and sisters" he said.¹⁰ From this I knew that he is not dead and gone to hell but active with "the prince of this world."

Your eyebrows may be raised when I use the word hell. What the above mentioned lady is doing is nothing but necromancy, forbidden for Christians. Paulos Gregorios (PG) turned out to be a devil, according to John D. Kunnath as certified by Anne Schandorf. Be aware, when you die, if you are a child of God, all your weaknesses and sins even like crimson will be set aside till judgment. However, as regards your body, "dust thou art to dust returns." Your soul and spirit will be hidden in Christ until the second coming of Jesus. You will be at perfect rest, safe and sound. According to the Holy Bible, you can pray silently to God with God but only for yourself and not for anyone else including your own sons and daughters (Ezekiel 14:14, 18, 20). Dead saints are praying for us, ploughing our fields, catching fishes for us, protecting our children and the like, are taught by church fathers like PG, who knew nothing about the teachings of the Holy Bible. If any saint does what he has done will be called a demon. If you're a child of Lucifer, you will be acclaimed by him and he will detail you to do all sorts of rubbish because you are already a devil. Now, on three counts, you decide where PG is?

1. He certified himself to be a multi faceted wicked.
2. He does not want to be forgiven. Then he is not entitled to be redeemed by the blood of Jesus; not eligible to be justified by God; not qualified to be atoned; not eligible to be glorified. Unless you have attained these entire steps how would you reconcile with God? If you are not reconciled with God, there is no adoption, if there is no adoption where is your sonship? If you are not a son where is the question of entitlement according to the 'Will' executed by our Lord Jesus Christ?
3. See the appendix A, B, and C and identify the greatest liar you have ever heard. Tell me where is he now? Deserved royal and glorious resting like Parumala Mar Gregorios or working as a slave of Lucifer?

We generally fail to understand that philosophers are philosophers and they are not theologians. Take the case of Socrates, Plato or Aristotle. They were great philosophers but, they never claimed to be theologians. Paulos Gregorios was a great philosopher while he erroneously claimed to be a great theologian. He also claimed to be an authority of interpreting the Holy Bible while he knew nothing about it. The moment he talks about the Holy Bible it becomes blasphemy. He was a very good friend of mine and I admired his ability since 1961. 1) He fought single handed and successfully against all adversities, and came up in life and shined almost alone as a star in the Church. 2) Great people have said, “all cannot be fooled all the time” but without giving an iota of doubt he fooled everyone in his time. 3) He left an indelible impression in theological seminaries by introducing a plethora of Christian books and imposing them on innocent students.

Communist people in general are agnostics and atheists. They cannot believe in any religion or God. If at all there is a god, they are against him because he does not know how to distribute wealth equally. Karl Marx in his ‘Das Capita’ said, “Religion is opium of the people.”³ That is the bible of the Communists and Paulos Gregorios. My church is the Church of God established by disciple St. Thomas even when Antioch was still a gentile nation. Out of all denominations this church only has the semblance of the absolute faith taught by Jesus and St. Thomas, although people like “Bishop sans Humility & Red Bishop” had ruined it.

If you are a secular man, you are a carnal man, you are worldly and you are far away from a spiritual man, who is a disciple of Christ. A secular man is always related to worldly things and he can never be sacred. He will be egoistic and talks very high of himself.

“Therefore, come out from them and be separate, says the Lord” (2 Corinthians 6:17). “I will be a Father to you, and you will be my sons and daughters, says the Lord Almighty” (2 Corinthians 6:18). Such people would not like to be addressed as “Next Prime Minister of India,” “Gregory of India,” “Apostle of Christ,” “Hasyo deelan,” “Our healer,” “A light too bright” This is the name of Lucifer and such self bestowed names. If you have a ‘dialogue’ he will teach you to address your god as Eswaran; Eswaran is not our God! Our Father in heaven has taught us how to address Him. Our Bishops and priests are treated as our prince and they should be treated with great honour for the glory of God because they are the glorious servants of God; but they shall not call our God Eswaran. Originally Shiva was addressed as Eswara because he sits on the ‘Ishanamoola’ that is the North Eastern side of Mt. Everest. You call him Eswara but never dare to call our God. In my ‘Latent Thumb Impression of God’ I have categorically stated with proof that Indra, Bhrama, Vishnu and Maheswara are addressed as Eswara and all of them are fallen angels, not only these four but 33 Crores of them! Club not our God with them. Our God’s loyal angels defeated and chased them away from heaven. PG addressed our God as Eswara and other bishops obediently followed suit! They may be Eswara for you but not for the believers of the Church. This person suggested them and they are using the word Eswaran inadvertently, thinking of our God. Very fervently, with tears I plead, please stop it forthwith. Devil’s synonym does not suit our God!

Jesus never asked us to be a Christian. As far as caste is concerned, there is no difference between ‘a Dalit’, a Christian or a Brahmin in the eyes of the Lord. All will come in the category of gentiles; since we are not Hebrews. Jesus asked us to follow Him. He also asked us to make all people his disciples. Unfortunately, the Christians did not understand what discipleship is and they ignored my books also.

Jesus asked us to make all people his disciples not Christians. In my book, 'Christian Sans Christ,' there is a chapter devoted exclusively for discipleship titled, "Follow me." The Theologians gave much weight to religion and the word Christians. Alas! Both are absurd! If you are a religious man, you can never be a disciple of Christ because you are not a spiritual man. If you claim to be a Christian, thieves, prostitutes and murderers are also included in that category. Be a disciple of Jesus and satisfy the commandment of our Lord God, Jesus Christ! (Matthew 28:19, 20) Your sweet name will be entered in the 'Book of Life.'

A theological seminary should not appoint such people as their principals or professors if they are communists, secularists, atheists and, necromancer or freemasons. We were forced to appoint a person with all these traits as the principal of our theological seminary much against the wishes of our Synod and he caused irreparable damage to our church. It is quite strange that we did not realise it till date. If we allow such a thing, they will teach the innocent incumbent their perverted thoughts and imaginations and ruin their lives and make them to praise them in all forms and desecrate the glorious name of our God. Finally these innocent people will be instrumental for creating 'super saints' in the Church which is nothing but a curse for the Christendom. The relics (a piece of discarded cloth) of such people will be venerated in the church by the innocent people. This is the work of our enemy and he is delighted by our foolish activities. Actually we are saints and we cannot make any one a super saint. We are not authorised to do that. Don't you know that you are the temple of God and the Spirit of God dwells in you? According to Paul and the Holy Bible, you are a saint. You can make a disciple of Christ and he will be a saint invariably. In this case, you will be executing the commands of Jesus. In the book, 'Paurasthya Christave Darshanam,' there is a chapter titled, 'The Holy Bible,' where he speaks rubbish and several lies. I was hesitant to use the word “liar” because he was an “anointed” person, but you will be forced to use the word many times.

St. Paul’s teaching pierces our heart, “Now the Bereans were of more noble character than the Thessalonians, for they received the message with great eagerness and examined the scriptures every day to see if Paul said was true” (Acts 17:11). We did not have a single Berean among us. All ridiculing words coupled with scoffs of the Holy Bible, we swallowed unquestionably and engraved even in our seminary chapel for posterity? Annual Symposia on Tom Foolery by strongly suggested intellectuals are encouraged shamelessly. What did he do other than using the men and material of Church as a launching pad for scaling the heights of his personal glory? How many air tickets to all places including ‘Kamchathuka’ we have purchased for this false prophet? I am against two titles conferred on him: ‘Red bishop’ and ‘Bishop sans humility’, just because he is a bishop of our Church. No other red bishop sleeps in our seminary chapel and if you are without humility, you are not a friend of Jesus. Other self-bestowed titles like, ‘Next Prime Minister of India,’⁴ ‘Gregory of India,’⁵ ‘Hasyo deelan’ ‘Our Healer,’ ‘A light too Bright’ etc. do not suit him at all. This book is the outcome of a question by my beloved God. Now what made me to press the button; I have no alternative but to present it to you. My beloved readers, I need not defend my God or the Holy Bible; Holy Bible defends itself. Never, ever be a diabolic tool; you are a child of God!

UNIVERSAL HISTORY IN NUTSHELL

Glory to God in the highest! God existed from the beginning. He was the King and ruled the universe in the best manner. The created angels were his subjects. They ruled the Universe in an excellent manner for a long time which we do not know very precisely but not less than 17,28,000 years. Let us call it 'Satyug'¹ or 'Krithayug.' During this period an excellent order prevailed. God appointed his Arch Angel, Lucifer² to rule the whole universe. Peace and tranquillity does not remain till eternity. There came some sort of disorder by the pride of the Arch Angel, Lucifer. He wanted freedom from the righteous king and remain above the king. The other Arch angels felt that it is an injustice and insult to their king. They put out the rebellion of Lucifer and along with him a host of other angels also were defeated and felled from the glorious heaven. They fell on to the earth. Unlike several other planets and stars, earth was a beautiful garden of God. The fallen angels were dejected at their fall and defeat and banishment but rejoiced at the glory of the beautiful earth. They thought of enjoying in earth; but misfortune hit them hard, God turned the earth upside down, withdrew the Sun and the Moon. Utter disregard, coupled with utter darkness and utter emptiness and void hurt them very badly. They licked their wounds and decided to take revenge against God and lay in wait impatiently. This is the period we can call it 'Tretayug' which extended for a period of 12,96,000 years. The fallen angels were two types one with four wings and four hands and the other with two wings and two hands. They did not keep quite. One of them was very clever; he named himself 'Vishnu' and took the form of 'Matsya' or fish according to India and some other creature in other part of the earth. He then formed himself as 'Kurma' or Turtle and then 'Varaha' or boar and later he became a 'Narasingha' or half man and half lion. This is to show that during these periods the fallen angels were active. Then came the 'Dwaparayug' which extended for a period of 8,64,000 years. During this period the same person formed himself as 'Vamana,' 'Parasurama,' 'Srirama' and 'Krishna.' From the beginning till now God has not created Adam. Then who were the inhabitants of the earth? They were fallen angels and that is the missing link of Charles Darwin. Next and the last is 'Kaliyug' which extends for a period of 4,32,000 years which is running currently. Perhaps Krishna might have existed during the end of 'Dwapara yug' or the beginning of 'Kali yug.' His date of birth is 21-07-3227 BC.

THE MISSING LINK

The technical term for missing link is transitional morphologies or forms. The terms are used by palaeontologists to describe important evolutionary discoveries that contain the anatomical features of both older and more recent physiology. A good example is the latest discovery of hominid fossils in Africa, which are believed to be a possible immediate ancestor to the human lineage, but NOT a missing link.

Every few years scientists unearth the bones of humanity's forefathers. From Lucy to the Hobbits of Flores Island, we are gradually seeing and building the puzzle of mankind's evolution. Truly, man is not the product of evolution but the creation of God.

“Probably the most important thing is that most of the fossils we find aren’t actually links,” Hawks said. “The number of extinct side- branches is much larger than the number of true genealogical connections in the fossil record, and so when we find a fossil, we don’t assume it’s an ancestor of anything we interpret it as a sister group of some things.”

While all modern species have followed different evolutionary paths, humans share a common ancestor with some primates, such as the African ape. For example, the hominid biological family branch includes humans, chimpanzees, gorillas and their extinct ancestors, while hominines include those species after the human lineage split from that of chimpanzees. This also is false and not a missing link!

“The notion of the ‘missing link’ dates from the early 20th century, when it was thought that human ancestors formed a sort of single chain receding into the remotest past,” said paleoanthropologist Ian Tattersall at the American Museum of Natural History in New York. “We now know that the picture was much more complex than that, with a lot of now- extinct species jostling for ecological space and evolutionary success.”

The term missing link was first used in 1851 by Charles Darwin's mentor, Charles Lyell, to describe samples of fossils he had found. Eight years later, Darwin published the 'Origin of Species,' in which, contrary to popular belief, he never used the term while describing his theories on evolution.

Over the years, many missing link fossils have been revealed to be hoaxes, with the most famous being the Piltdown Man. In 1912, a skull and jawbone found in a gravel pit in England were declared by scientists to be concrete proof of the connection between humans and apes. No one ever succeeded because that was not a missing link.

The failure of the missing link is: it is not a link between apes and humans at all. It is the fallen angels who assumed to be humans and animals and multiplied themselves in strange forms and shapes. These were the periods of the fallen angels and humans were not created yet. Rather than searching in the dark, we should have read the Holy Bible and begged the Holy Spirit for the missing link as shown in Genesis 6:4. "The Nephilim were on the earth in those days—and also afterward—when the sons of God went to the daughters of humans and had children by them. They were the heroes of old, men of renown." This is the cause of dis- similar bones. Lucifer was 16 feet high. His son Cain is a dis- similar person than Adam's son Abel. This is the answer to the missing link. Only a child of God can appreciate it!

THE MILLENNIUMS

It will be appropriated if we think of the Millenniums starting from 10th millennium downwards to connect Yugas to the present time. 10th Millennium BC marks the beginning of the Mesolithic and Epipaleolithic periods, which is the first part of the Holocene epoch. Agriculture, based on the cultivation of primitive forms of millet and rice, occurred in Southwest Asia. Although agriculture was being developed in the Fertile Crescent, it would not be widely practiced for another 2,000 years. The world population was between one and ten million most of whom were hunter-gatherer communities scattered over all continents except Antarctica and Zealandia. The Würm glaciation ended, and the beginning of interglacial, which endures to this day, allowed the re-settlement of northern regions. They were fallen angels as God has not yet created the humans!

9th millennium BC marks the beginning of the Neolithic period. Agriculture spread throughout the Fertile Crescent and use of pottery became more widespread. Larger settlements like Jericho arose along salt and flint trade routes. Northern Eurasia was resettled as the glaciers of the last glacial maximum retreated. World population was at a few million, likely below 5 million.

8th millennium BC, agriculture became widely practised in the Fertile Crescent and Anatolia. Pottery became widespread (with independent development in Central America) and animal husbandry (pastoralism) spread to Africa and Eurasia. World population was approximately five million.

During the 7th millennium BC, agriculture spread from Anatolia to the Balkans. World population was essentially stable at around five million, mostly scattered around the globe in small hunter-gatherer bands. In the agricultural communities of the Middle East, cow was domesticated and the use of pottery became common, spreading to Europe and South Asia, and the first metal (gold and copper) ornaments were made.

During the 6th millennium BC, agriculture spread from the Balkans to Italy and Eastern Europe, and also from Mesopotamia to Egypt. World population was essentially stable at numbers ranging between approximately five and seven million.

5th millennium BC: In North American history provides a timeline of events occurring within the North American continent from 5000 BC through 4001 BC in the Gregorian calendar. This time period, (from 5000 BC- 4001 BC), is known as the Middle Archaic.

4th millennium BC: During the years 4000 through 3000 BC, Some of the major changes in human culture took place. The beginning of Bronze Age and, the invention of writing played a major role in recording history. An archaeological site in northern Sardinia, Italy, located in the territory of Sassari near Porto Torres. The city states of Sumer and the kingdom of Egypt were established and grew to prominence. Agriculture spread widely across Eurasia. World population in the course of the millennium doubled, approximately from 7 to 14 million.

This is the millennium for the first time in the universal history we used the word 'humans' or people. Before this period was the fallen angels and now the first to three amalgamation takes place, which are recorded in the Holy Bible. Su Nuraxi di Barumini, one of many nuraghe megalithic structures on the island.

Ref: There were giants in the earth in those days; and also after that, when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old, men of renown. 1. Fallen angels coming to children of Adam. 2. Fallen angels after the flood of Noah. 3. After means unabated till today. Genesis 6:4

3rd millennium BC: It spans the years 3000 through 2001 BC. This period of time corresponds to the Early to Middle Bronze Age, in which imperialism, or the desire to conquer, grew to prominence in the city- states of the Middle East and throughout Eurasia. The civilization of Ancient Egypt rose to a peak with the Old Kingdom. World population is estimated to have doubled in the course of the millennium, to some 30 million people.

2nd millennium BC: It spans the years 2000 through 1000 BC. It marks the transition from the Middle to the Late Bronze Age. Its first half is dominated by the Middle Kingdom of Egypt and Babylonia.

1st millennium BC: It witnessed the period of Iron Age and the rise of many successive empires, and spanned from 1000 BC to 1 BC. The Neo-Assyrian Empire develops, followed by the Achaemenids. In Greece, Classical Antiquity begins with the colonization of Magna Greece and peaks with the rise of Hellenism.

First millennium AD: It was a period of time that began on January 1, AD 1, and ended on December 31, AD 1000, of the Julian calendar. It was the first period of one thousand years in the Anno Domini or Common Era. In Europe and the Mediterranean the first millennium was a time of great transition.

Second millennium AD: It was a period of time that began on January 1, 1001 of the Julian calendar and ended on December 31, 2000 of the Gregorian calendar. It was the second period of one thousand years in the Anno Domini or Common Era. It encompassed the High and Late Middle Ages.

Third millennium AD is a period of time that began on January 1, 2001, and will end on December 31, 3000 of the Gregorian calendar. It is the third and current period of one thousand years in the Anno Domini or Common Era.

FIRST HUMAN ON EARTH

God felt sad for the vacuum left by the beloved angels turned out to be rebels. So he remodelled the earth and made a garden in Eden and created Adam and Eve in his own likeness and image. This was somewhere between 'Dwaparayug' and 'Kaliyug.' Before this period there were no humans in the universe. The creation of humans occurred somewhere around 4000 BC. The best known date of birth of Adam is the one calculated by Archbishop James Ussher in the 17th century—6 p.m. Saturday, October 23, 4004 BC. Before this period only fallen angels existed. Look at the date of birth of Rama: January 10, 5114 B.C. Therefore, we must understand that according to the Indian Mythology, Brahma, Vishnu and Maheswara are fallen angels and they were created much before.

Bhagavad Gita is a very precious book. The incidents mentioned in Gita happened much before the creation of humans, in 'Dwaparayug' when the first human was not yet created. So you can notice that several things happening contrary to the gravitational force and size of humans. They were real but had nothing to do with humans, as it happened before human's creation. These are incidents occurred may be lakhs of years before the creation of Adam, while history of man is hardly 6000 years. Gita is a precious advice, Krishna advising his brother- in- law Arjuna. There the embodiment actions and its consequence coupled with rewards are explained in 'karma kanda.' The principles of Gita are absolutely against the principles of the Holy Bible where the 'grace' of God is cardinal point and not actions. "It is by grace you have been saved, through faith—and this is not from yourselves, it is the gift of God. Salvation is not a reward for the good things we have done, so none of us can boast about it" (Ephesians 2:8-9).

Upanishads are ten books containing very valuable information pertaining to higher level of philosophical knowledge. This precious information was applied at that time by the fallen angels. It was prevalent in all over the world. It came to our country as carried by the people of Euphrates- Tigris Civilization after the Babel Tower debacle. People spread all over the world after that and they carried all that they could. When we talk about Rama and Krishna the Babylonians deal about 'Gilgamesh³' and 'Enkidu' in the kingdom of 'Sumeria.' They have official record. Tower of Babel dispersed the whole human population all over the world. All the human intelligence was originated in and around Iraq only. The other higher knowledge of cosmos is the contribution of the fallen angels. Remember the characters 'Kali' and 'Narakasura' they were demons, even according to Hindu Puranas. There were demon kings in the world including India, according to the Puranas. The *Prajapati*⁴ concept is a parallel of the Holy Bible. That is the reason some portions of the Holy Bible is very similar to certain stanzas of the Upanishads. These were universal affairs. As Sanskrit, Hindi and Malayalam Upanishads were found to be not very reliable. I imported 10 Upanishads in 2 volumes from Max Muller, Germany. I still preserve it but please bear in mind; it is pertaining to the fallen angel era and not intended for human. Since its origin is much before the creation of Adam, the first human, it does not apply to us. There we see all the fallen angels run behind women. Some of the incidents of these gods are much below the standard of us humans to utter, including incest of Brahma. It is fine for them. They are fallen angels, numbering 33,00,00,000 calling themselves as gods!

AMALGAMATIONS OF MAN AND FALLEN ANGELS

The first amalgamation took place in the Garden of Eden, when the beautiful Eve was left alone and Adam went to pray to God. There appeared the fallen angel Lucifer, in the form of a young handsome youth of 16 feet tall and shining bright like the morning star. He was a trickster and enticed the young wife of Adam and made her pregnant with the help of a couple of other fallen angels including a dragon, an enchanter and a magician. Innocent girl was taken for a ride and she fell from the grace of God and became naked. By another trick through the girl the angel managed to trick

Adam also and he fell in the trap of a prostitute, his own wife Eve. She gave birth to a wicked son, called Cain and another son through Adam called Abel. Cain and his children filled the earth and they are called Kenites till today. This is the result of the first amalgamation of human and the fallen angels. The question of 'first sin' 'the apple' 'the fruit' and several riddles are opened here itself.

The second amalgamation took place as mentioned in Genesis 6:4. The Nephilim were on the earth in those days—and also afterward—when the sons of God went to the daughters of humans and had children by them. They were the heroes of old, men of renown. Nephilim were the product of humans and the angels. The third amalgamation took place after the ark was opened during the time of Noah. The innumerable persons drowned in the flood lost only their bodies but their spirits were safe and were lying in wait for an opportunity to mingle with women. There came down from the ark the wife of Noah, wife of Shem, wife of Ham and wife of Japheth. That is the meaning of the term “—and also afterward—” (Genesis 6:4). An ideal example is Nimrod. “Cush was the father of Nimrod, who grew to be a mighty warrior on the earth. He was a mighty hunter before the Lord that is why it is said, “Like Nimrod, a mighty hunter before the Lord.” Like Cain, Nimrod too was a Nephilim. They were tall, mighty and fearful. Gath was a Nephilim and he had five sons who were called Goliath.

Apart from that there were several occasions, when Hebrew man and woman amalgamated from the time of Abraham and Esau till today by intermarriages of Kenites. These amalgamations brought out hybrids⁵ like Nephilim, Klipha, Giborim, Rephaim and Anakim. This is to indicate that our history is a mixture, like the population of the universe today, a mixture of fallen angels and humans, hybrid in nature. As far as faith is concerned some people worship their father God; while some others worship their father, Lucifer. What a strange universe history!

A FEW DIABOLIC TOOLS

Our God loves all. His first lot of children were angels. When they defected and were banished from heaven, there was a vacuum and the Lord had revulsion for vacuum. He was sad for the loss of his beloved children, the fallen angels.¹ Angels were created like birds with wings. They were created neither in the image of God nor in his likeness. So God decided to make man, his second lot of children, in his exact image and likeness. Therefore, man was a magnificent creation. Satan⁶ was infuriated by seeing these new types of children of God. Lucifer, the archangel was a magnificent creation of God. But Lucifer's splendour and beauty did not last forever. While ministering, he began to consider his own position of prominence. Lucifer became prideful¹, believing that he deserved more than what he already had. He wanted to become like the Most High. Pride goes before fall and it happened to the archangel. He never expected a fall and degradation. When the humans were enjoying the blissful paradise, he started to destroy them by hook or crook.

EVE AS A DIABOLIC TOOL

Eve was the most beautiful human God has created. He created her with his own hands. Lucifer was the most beautiful angel, but he became Satan due to his pride. In Satan's epic enticement of the first created divine persons, it is very noticeable that the serpent had to name drop the creator who is God to further its sinister objectives. Satan knew so well that it cannot make reference to itself because its countenance is extremely opposite to the countenance of God. Satan has an ugly monster in him, while God is a perfectly supreme divine person. Besides, as the ancient serpent, it is under the dominion of the first created divine persons by virtue of the authority vested upon the divine couple by the creator who is God. Satan had to use the name of God for its proposal to have a high market value or make its enticement a lot more compelling and credible. Such method fraught with treachery and deceit is the diabolic art of deception perfected peerlessly by the "father of lies"⁷ who is Satan. He had a wicked idea: if God is doing well, he and his comrades will do the opposite. He approached Eve in the form of a reptile. He mesmerized her and beguiled her to commit adultery to father his son Cain. He used the innocent woman as the first diabolic tool.

FOUR FRIENDS OF JOB AS DIABOLIC TOOLS

Job lost everything he had and sat in mourning and despair. To his front porch came four close friends. Each diagnosed Job's condition and gave their advice. The account shows that Job did not listen to any of them. He stood his ground and justified himself. God allowed Satan to test the sincerity of Job. Satan and his deceit failed miserably. So he approached four of his friends: Eliphaz, Bildad, Zohar and Elihu to persuade Job to fall into the pit of pride. God finally got Job's attention and brought him around to see the pride and arrogance of his self- inflicted position. In three well phrased chapters⁸, a masterful dressing down, God brought Job around to see that he was nothing. In the end he came to say to God, "I have heard of you by the hearing of the ear, but now my eye sees you. Therefore I abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes" (Job 42:5). These diabolic tools got blunted in front of Job. He showed his enormous faith in God. We can see that Satan had frequent audience with God. Satan and his diabolic tools are incredible!

KING SAUL AS A DIABOLIC TOOL

The son of Kish, of the tribe of Benjamin, the first king of the Israelites (1 Samuel 9:1-2) became the slave of jealousy, duplicity, deceit, treachery, and the most malignant and diabolic tool. As soon as he became king, Saul killed and chased all mediums from Israel. However, at fag end of his life, he disobeyed God. Instead of listening to God he went according to his will to a medium. Finally, he was confused and lost all hopes. God had handed him over to an evil spirit as a punishment for his disobedience and deceit. He tried to kill David for no valid reason except jealousy and deceit. It was the character of Satan. So he went and met a medium to consult dead Samuel. The medium was successful in making him believe that the apparition the medium saw was Samuel the prophet. She convinced him to believe that dead Samuel informed the medium that Saul and his son Jonathan will die today in the battle. So King Saul became a diabolic tool. God instructed us, "I will set my face against the person who turns to mediums and spirits to prostitute himself by following them, and I will cut him off from his people" (Leviticus 20:6). "A man or woman who is a medium or spiritist among you must be put to death. You are to stone them; their blood will be on their heads" (Leviticus 20:27). All mediums are diabolic tools. P G became a medium.

BETHSHEBA AS A DIABOLIC TOOL

Ahithophel was one of the warriors and advisors of David. His son Eliam was the father of Bathsheba. She was married to Uriah, a Hittite, and a famous warrior of David's company. In the encounters with the army of King Saul, Ahithophel, Eliam and Uriah fought hand to hand along with David and saved him several times at the cost of their lives. Since they were actively involved in politics they were all staying very close to the Palace. Once the beautiful granddaughter of Ahithophel, was taking bath. It was in such a way that David could view it from the roof top, a deceit. He brought her home and made her pregnant. In order to cover up the issue David killed the innocent Uriah in a cunning manner, in the battle field; another deceit. The whole episode is pivoted on the character of Bathsheba who was used as a diabolic tool in order to ruin the life of David. Through out his life David regretted for the onslaught he had from the diabolic tool of Bathsheba. In order to exact his vengeance Ahithophel advises Absalom to encounter David before crossing the river Jordan at night. But "the Lord appointed to defeat the good counsel" of Ahithophel and he committed suicide by hanging. This episode could be omitted from the Holy Bible. But see the truthfulness of the word of God; it is mentioned verbatim. Satan uses innocent people as diabolic tools, Bathsheba was yet another example!

JUDAS ISCARIOT AS A DIABOLIC TOOL

Jesus and Iscariot Judas: The most amazing story ever told, How a miracle- working apostle of Jesus Christ fell into sin, committed suicide, and wound up in hell — doomed and damned forever! We ought to make it very clear that Judas was never saved. “He was never repented or converted. He never put his own personal faith in the Saviour for the forgiveness of sins.”

Worldly speaking Judas was the most prominent figure among the disciples of Jesus. He was from a well known family, rich, educated and affluent more than any of them. That is why he was appointed as the treasurer of Jesus’ ministry. He had no compassion for the poor. When Mary, Lazarus’ sister, anointed Jesus’ feet with a “very precious” ointment a few days before the Saviour’s death, Judas complained about it. His rationalization was that the valuable substance might have been sold, with the revenue distributed to the poor. But John affirmed that his protest had nothing to do with “care for the poor” (John 12:6). The narrative is even more explicit. John declared that his protest was powered by greed, for he was a thief, who “took away” what was deposited in the treasury box. Satan induces his character and the victim falls in deceit for his harvest.

Jesus “knew from the beginning” who the traitor would be. Speaking specifically to the twelve, he said: “Did I not choose you the twelve, and one of you is a devil?” The term diabolos was applied figuratively to Judas because of his antagonism to Christ (Matthew 16:23; 7:19). On Tuesday before Christ’s death, Luke says that “Satan entered into Judas,” and he then met with the chief priests and captains. A bargain was struck with reference to the betrayal of Jesus (Luke 22:3-6). To suggest that Satan “entered into” Judas is a forceful way of stating that the apostle yielded to satanic influence, implementing thoughts he had entertained for a while.

Two days later, at the time of the “last supper,” John observes that “the devil” had already “put into the heart of Judas” the inclination to betray his Lord John 13:2. During the feet-washing episode, Christ hinted that Judas was not “clean” (v. 10b). Later during the meal, when Jesus indicated to the traitor that he knew of his diabolical plan (Matthew 26:25) “then entered Satan into him” (John 13:27). Whatever reservations may have lingered in his tortured soul previously now was gone. The devilish plan crystallized!

Each of the Gospel writers depicts Judas as a betrayer or traitor. Tragically, Judas hanged himself (Matthew 27:3). His ultimate destiny in eternal punishment is hardly open to dispute. He was described as a “son of perdition” (John 17:12). The “son of” idiom conveys the idea of experiencing a destiny consistent with one’s character. Luke says that Judas “fell away” from his ministry and apostleship and went to “his own place,” i.e., the place he prepared for himself and deserved to be—hell (Acts 1:25).

Jesus laments: “While I was with them, I kept them in your name, which you have given me. I have guarded them, and not one of them has been lost, except the son of destruction.” Jesus “lost” Judas. The traitor’s loss resulted from his wrong choices, and he “fell away” (Acts 1:17, 25). Truly speaking, a talented person, an all-rounder was converted to a diabolic tool. It destroyed him and ultimately sent him to hell!

(It was hard to believe until we found a parallel in recent times in the life of PG, a bishop of our Church, who betrayed everyone he came across except Satan. We will deal with it in the next diabolic tool.)

PAUL VARGHESE AS A DIABOLIC TOOL

Now let us see a Bishop praised by everyone becomes a wretched diabolic tool! We know Paul Varghese as a very intelligent person who could become a very successful person in the world. But in reality he was a tool in the hands of Lucifer. His dejected life, association with the Marxist party, Ethiopian black practices, mind control, very ambitious nature to acquire 'higher knowledge' etc. are examples. His qualifications coupled with intense desire to become a bishop to penetrate into WCC made it very easy for Lucifer to swing him between this world and the nether world to wreck and demolish him. That is the other side of his character but no one will believe it because very successfully he did mask his relationship with Lucifer. In fact, he could fool everyone he came in contact with. "He has never repented or converted. He never put his own personal faith in the Saviour for the forgiveness of sins."

Let us see how clever Satan was to act in a clandestine manner, ruining the life of a gem of a man in the following chapters.

PAUL VARGHESE AS I KNOW

Paul Varghese was a very brilliant student. When he completed his High School, from the princely state of Cochin, misfortune hit him hard that he could not pursue his studies in college. His mother was mentally challenged. This made him a rebel. So he started earning for his survival. His mind was always rebellious so he joined the communist movement and became a union leader at a very young age. He was very ambitious, hence he left the current job to join Telegraph department and enhanced his union and communist activities at higher echelons.

Communist activities at that time were also coupled with militant activities like today. Extermination is always the principle of the communist party, if the opponent group is not prepared to join with their agenda. Young Paul was a core communist but was not prepared to execute the extermination orders of the party's higher ups. After becoming an active ‘saghavu’ (comrade) of the communist party, he was not much connected with the Church or served as an altar boy because Karl Marx was his idol. Marx taught him, “Religion is the opium of the people.”¹¹ The communist party had influenced him so much that he believed, “Banish the gods from the skies and capitalists from the Earth and make the world safe for industrial communism.” However, he was not prepared to join the groups who executed the innocents for party. As a union leader of a transport company at Kochi, he was liked by EMS, AKG and E.K. Nayanar. When he joined the Post and Telegraph department, invariably he was the union leader there also. He was a handsome Christian, although he stopped practicing Christianity for the sake of party. Either he had to commit criminal activities for the party or they will make him a martyr. A time came when he was compelled to leave the country or face the wrath of the higher ups. There were two valid reasons for the party to deal with him in a very harsh manner. A) He was an excellent freelance²⁶ reporter of the communist party and also he was too smart that so many of his seniors feared that he will overtake them. Then they hatched a plot, and he was hunted by both Travancore police and Cochin police for his journalistic work. B) His connection with T.V. Thomas (later minister of the communist government, who married in the party office, another communist, K.R. Gouri, also a minister) brought him to lime light. He had good rapport with several Communist leaders. However, by his luck, Paul Varghese left the country for good and surfaced in Ethiopia as a school teacher. At that time the minimum qualification for a teacher was a graduation from a college. He was only a matriculate but very intelligent and studious person. He became a language teacher of a primary school in Ethiopia after studying their language, Amharic. Later he reorganised the grammar of that language which surprised the ruler of the country, HH Haile Sellasee. After three years he left for higher studies, B.A. to Goshen College, United States.

He did not surface for quite some time but his pen was active for the party and it had its influence even in China and Germany. Many a missionaries had bitter experience including loss of life by the Communist party, like Watchman Nee. In 1952 Watchman Nee breathed his last in prison in main land China for his gospel work in the neighbouring Islands and Mainland China. Communist writers and anonymous free lance writers like Paul Varghese contributed so much for the Communist party, while it was very injurious to the Gospel workers. No one ever suspected his nefarious activities for the Communist party. However, word of God flourished day by day even in the adverse conditions.

After his post graduation, he joined the World Council of Churches. He also became a priest and later a bishop with the intention to head the WCC. He also worked for completing his thesis on Gregory of Nyssa, one of the Cappadocian fathers. As the subject was already taken up by umpteen number of people, he could not get a guide or a supervisor. He was disappointed, more rebellious and dejected because this doctorate would have filliped him to better heights in WCC, his cherished ambition. Finally he approached Rev. Dr. V.C. Samuel and requested him to help him out. At that time both of them were in Oxford and Paul Varghese was staying with Dr. V.C. Samuel. As he narrated to me, the so called thesis did not have any merit or substance except the already documented material kept in the "Gregory of Nyssa Research Institute"⁶. He advised Paul Varghese to include something as originality is needed for a thesis. As per his advice he modified it but there were no takers. At last Rev. Dr. V.C. Samuel approached his friend at Oxford, Fr. Kelly. During that period, Kelly was a professor of Serampore Christian College. He persuaded Fr. Kelly to help him out. After one hour interview with Paul Varghese, Fr. Kelly remarked that his approach about Saint Augustine was unfair and too cheap as Paul Varghese was too small a person to comment on a Saint like Augustine. Finally Fr. Kelly obliged Rev. Dr. V C Samuel and Paul Varghese got his doctorate. This catapulted him to the level of Secretary of WCC. PG later remarked that “Kelley did not have even one tenth of his knowledge.” See the audacity and arrogance of PG. In 1975 a Red Bishop took birth in the Malankara Orthodox Church, much against the wishes of the Synod.

He became very famous in WCC and they sent him all over the world. He visited USSR over 45 times and subjected several important people for tuning them to “all seeing eye.”⁷ He liked USSR for a couple of reasons: Enough of precious Rubble for the pocket; enough of Vodka for the cold weather and enough of prey for teaching One World Religion! The world got an impression that he is doing evangelical work in USSR but he did no gospel work anywhere in the world because he was a critic of Evangelism as it was branded as ‘Imperialism’ by him. Of course, during this long period he acted as a presbyter in a chapel for names sake two or three weeks. He himself stated that he hates the word ‘Mission’ and he is a critic of Mission and had never been a missionary because Mission is imperialism as rich people serve the poor people with the intention of converting them to Christianity. He also became a freemason who used to speak about philanthropic subjects all over the world. He acquired good reputation among Hindus, Muslims, Jains and Sikhs, so that he was widely acknowledged as a secularist and a bishop of the Church.

As regards to our Church, he was the Principal of the Theological Seminary, although he knew very little about the Holy Bible and Christian Theology. His main contributions were introductions of ‘Eswaran’ in place of God and the word ‘Namo’ for honouring evil spiritual gods. He had cultivated several students for him in the Seminary and not a single disciple of Christ because he himself was not a disciple of Christ!

Another venomous contribution is the introduction of “Rudrakshamala.” In orthodox church he started and several bishops and priests adopted it shamelessly. Do you know the significance of that? Ignorance is a bliss! After the sad death of Sati his wife, Shiva was very sad and angry. He put her half burnt body on this neck and started ‘siva thandava nrutham’. Her body was disintegrated and fell apart. The sweat fell from his body is said to be ‘rudraksha’. PG wore it and his chelas followed suit. He did it deliberately to please his God; others sinned against God!

He also received three honorary doctorates because he had great interest in various subjects, particularly of Karl Marx. Whenever a Nobel laureate publishes a paper on any new subject, Paul Varghese will study that subject, own it up and publish a book or an article in his name, as secretary of WCC. His ‘Cosmic Man’¹⁹ earned him name and fame but no one knew that it was an adaptation of a portion of the book, ‘The Apocrypha and Pseudepigrapha of the Old Testament’ by R.H. Charles, D.LITT., DD, printed at the Clarendon press, Oxford. The original speaker in that book is none other than our ‘Enoch.’ He had a lot of such books and articles for his credit in various subjects. His name and fame came from the WCC which ruined his spiritual life, thus:

- He became a regular speaker in the international circle on the subjects of Yoga, and Reiki. It is a sin for Christians because at one stage, you have to dismiss Holy Spirit and install the devil to practice yoga and Reiki effectively.
- He became a freemason and engaged in philanthropic activities. WCC gave him a free hand to travel all over the world for dealing with its functions. Freemasons 33rd degree is directly reporting to the 'All Seeing Eye' or Satan.

- He was engaged in dialogues with 'who is who' of other religions and diluted the principles of Christianity.
- He developed a scant respect for the Holy Bible and started equating Christ with other people, without knowing even the definition of Christ.
- He treated Mockachi Okado as a prophet and practiced the technique of how to live actively after death. A devilish technique, requiring of replacing the Holy Spirit with Mockachi Okado.
- 'Healing a Holistic Approach' to be called as 'Hasiyo deelan' and 'Our healer,' in fact he became a Necromancer.
- He was nicknamed as 'Red Bishop' as he was a staunch communist. Communists are Atheists. His body is the only one in the Seminary chapel belonging to a communist, atheist, secularist, freemason, necromancer, medium and a satanist.
- He was a critic of the Holy Bible, Evangelism and Mission.
- He was nicknamed as 'Bishop sans humility'. He admits that he is very rude and he bluffed.
- WCC made him arrogant, rude and a bluff master.
- He sold his soul and spirit to Lucifer as Dr. Faustus did.

Worldly he became very successful. Other people respected him and appreciated his attitude without knowing him from close quarters. People of other religions respected him because he sold our Christ in his 'Will' to them. He said "Christ is for me a teacher of humanity, along with Gautama Budha, Vardhamana Mahavira, Loa Tse, Mahatma Gandhi, Mohammed, Adi Shannkara, Plato, Socrates, Moses, and Zoroaster¹²." He belittled Christ because he did not know even the definition of Christ. Where did he meet Christ and experience Christ? If he says, Jesus was a teacher, it is a fact. He knew nothing about Christ. As far as spiritual life is concerned, he entered WCC as a diamond of the Church and came out as a piece of charcoal. As time passed, nobody trusted him in WCC. They had been trying to mask him from the general public because at the end he became devilish. In all important functions they were compelled to send two presidents to cover him up. This book is a humble attempt to show how gullible is our people and how far can we go away from our loving God? This also will throw some light on diabolic tools!

MY LAST MEETING WITH HIM

I knew Paul Varghese since 1961. He was a towering personality when I met him last in 1994. Then I was the secretary of St. Gregorios Orthodox Cathedral and was supervising a construction work of the Church as I was the convenor. Fr. C. M. Philipose was the vicar when Paul visited us. It also reminded me that this person was very arrogant and impatient as stated by my friend K.I. Isaac, whom we called affectionately, 'Listener Isaac' because he had an institute of Radio Engineering by that name. We respected him because he was still an altar boy at the age of 80 plus. One day, Paulos Gregorios asked him to give a lift to Bangalore Cantonment station. Generally for any Episcopal visit, we will volunteer to provide a car for them. But since Paulos Gregorios was very arrogant, no one bothered when he visited Bangalore. Isaac, who was 14 years older than him took his luggage and drove him to Cantonment Station. On the way his old Fiat car got punctured. VIP got annoyed and fired Isaac for going around with a junk car. Very reverently, Isaac said I will set it right now and started to change the punctured wheel. The VIP was not sitting with Isaac in the front seat. Isaac was driver and VIP was sitting back left seat with enormous pomp and show! Bishop did not come out or helped him. Soon he looked at the watch and gave Isaac another dose of firing. He said, Thirumeni, I will take you soon and drop you at railway station 10 minutes before the train arrives. He knew the timings of all trains as his house was a few meters away from the station. After one minute, while Isaac was finishing his job Thirumeni shouted at the top of his voice, saying “You should have told me before hand that your car is such a junk”, the third dose. Isaac remained silent and dropped him at the station 15 minutes early and kept his luggage in the train’s compartment, kissed his hand and left. In the Church compound he narrated his story with great remorse to me as a complaint because they all knew that I am a friend of Paulos Gregorios. Since I knew his nature very well, I thought of asking him a question. This was not to clear my doubt but to trigger his ego. Vicar told him that our A.V. Thomas wants to ask you a small doubt. He said why small, let Thomachan ask the greatest question, I am ready. As soon as I entered the parsonage vicar told us that today there will be a speech in the TV by Fr. O. Thomas; are you going to watch? I immediately said yes. Thirumeni said, “Why should I watch that, what can I get from that?” I was delighted to hear the statement because I was going to encounter the ‘Everest of Knowledge!’

I asked Thirumeni, I have a small question. He said, “You are an experienced industrialist of Bangalore, why make it small, let it be a big question.” I said, “Thirumeni, as you know, I am a very small fellow and my question also is very small. I know netra danam maha danam what is your opinion about it?” He said, “Yes it is!” I said, “Fine! My doubt is that I donated one of my eyes to a blind man. We both died. I was expecting some special consideration from the Judgement seat of Jesus, while I was on my knees to receive the verdict, to my utter despair, Jesus said, ‘Thomas, God could give him several pairs of eyes, if he wanted. He did not give him any because he never wanted him to see the glory of God’s creation. You have defeated his very purpose of creating him as blind. Why did you do that? What should be my answer?" Abruptly he said, God will not say like that. I said, "He asked me." He again said, God cannot ask like that. "How could you say that on behalf of God?" I asked. An unpleasant silence prevailed. I repeated how could you say that on behalf of God? He had no answer. This infuriated him. He got annoyed as usual. Since I knew his nature, I said a joke loudly and the vicar burst into laughter. He could not do anything and got further infuriated. A Pitiable sight!

He had a peculiar character. He had no friends. Unlike any other persons, he was never hospitable. He thought all other people are very small. Look at his hospitality: When PG was hospitalised in Germany, two Indians drove over three hours and reached the hospital to visit him. One of them was Rev. Dr. E.C. John, principal of United Theological College, Bangalore. The other person was his relative Dr. K.O. Mathew. They have been together in Thadakam Ashram where Paul Varghese was his comrade who was hospitalised in Germany. So they thought let us pay a visit to him. Rev. Dr. E.C. John has taken a tedious drive to see their good old friend. By that time he has become a bishop and greater than the greatest. After a few minutes of their arrival, His grace Dr. Paulos Mar Gregorios asked them to clear off as he has got important matter to type. No drink, no friendly words and exhibited enormous form of arrogance. They wished him speedy recovery and left. Do you know what was that great important matter; Crystallised form of blasphemy as usual. Have you noticed his hospitality? When Rev. Dr. E.C. John narrated it to me, I was not ashamed as I knew Paulos Gregorios pretty well!

As far as I knew him, he was not prepared for a complete surrender to Jesus. He was over conscious about his freedom. According to P. Govindappillai, this freedom is alienation from God. He wanted to have dialogue with God. God never allowed him for that but Satan pretended to be god and entertained him every time. He saw God as a dictator. He was a rebellious person and that is why he sold his soul to Lucifer. After that he could find that St. Augustine was too obedient to God, too humble and he made the European people a slave to God. 'Bishop sans humility' found fault with noble Saint Augustine and said "I need not call him Saint Augustine." This is one of the reasons why his close friends said that he inherited his mother's mental derailment! They are true because no sane person will make several denials. No honourable person will tell several lies for nothing. No educated person will say, "In Yale University nobody knew anything! In Oxford University nobody knew anything!" Prof. Dr. Kelly advised him to be more humble and his criticism will not stand against St. Augustine because Augustine is a great person and PG is a small fellow. This infuriated him and said that Kelly did not know one tenth of what he knew. Taking all these into consideration I thought PG was a lost sheep. Later on I concluded that he was not a lost sheep but a wolf in sheep's clothes! Lucifer used him as a diabolic tool!

'SWANUBHAVA VEDIYIL'

This is the last book of Fr. Dr. V.C. Samuel and I was the editor along with M.S. George. On one occasion, Fr. V.C. Samuel told me, "I have shared all my secrets with you; I have not done it even with my wife." I loved and respected him because I have not yet seen such a person of great integrity with original faith. He told me once that a person has hit him below the belt and he considers it as the most, unkindest cut of all. Since it is a delicate subject I kept quiet and pretended not interested to hear that. He said "it is about your friend Paul Varghese. We both were in Ethiopia and he was a primary teacher in a school and I was Principal of a collage. Both these institutions were under the control of the Emperor Hale

Selassie. Paul Varghese was very ambitious and I used to help him in many respects. Then he met me in Oxford with a request to help him out with his thesis. I did that but there were no takers as a guide because the subject did not have any originality and all the materials could be compiled by anyone as it is displayed in “the institute of Gregory of Nyssa.”¹⁵ Several people have obtained doctorate, with slightest modification. So no one wanted to tie an additional bell to the same cat. When he was completely dejected and staying with me, I decided to contact my best friend Dr. Kelly who was a professor at Serampore University Calcutta, to help him out. Dr. Kelly obliged. However, he remarked to Paul Varghese, “St. Augustine was a great Saint and what was written about him was not charitable. Moreover being such a small man how dare you criticise him so badly? Yet I did not reject the thesis because of the good relation we had.” He recommended the thesis and that is how Paul Varghese got his doctorate.

Fr. V.C. Samuel continued, “In 1960 I was in Chicago University. After going through my Dissertation, a very famous professor expressed his immense satisfaction and asked me to include two more epistles. Since he was having Editorship, he edited it and included in my Dissertation. In addition to that he offered me, without my asking, if my professor in Yale agrees, he can arrange three years complete financial assistances for my higher studies. I was very happy and contacted my Yale professor Dr. Calhoun and informed the matter and asked an appointment to see him personally. He said for this matter you need not come from Chicago and in addition, this telephone is too costly for you. So allow him to pay that also. Everything went very well, but it did not materialise because your friend turned the table against me.” He had already tendered his resignation to the College, vacated his residence and moved goods to the sea port. Then a strange cable was received from Yale stating that his scholarship is cancelled as he was no more an Orthodox priest. On enquiry it was found that Fr. Paul Varghese worked very hard to get his scholarship stopped. Fr. V.C. Samuel tried to find out what made him to do such a hit below his belt. Finally, he recollects that, while they were in Oxford, one day, his wife asked him to request Paul Varghese to shift from their residence to a different location. He promptly conveyed it to Paul Varghese and he shifted to a different location. But he was displeased. This might have infuriated him and he acted in an unfriendly manner. This was the reward for helping him in several ways. Poor soul had to do everything from the scratch again. Watch how Satan uses his diabolic tools!

The Emperor, Haile Selassie was a good friend of Fr. V.C. Samuel. He asked him what had gone wrong as regards Yale University studies. Fr. Samuel said I will tell you after one year. The Emperor patiently waited for the lapse of one year and asked him the reason. He narrated the whole story. Emperor was aware of the fact that Fr. Samuel was debarred as he was an Orthodox priest who got married after his ordination, against the tradition, in India. In other Orthodox Churches, after becoming priest also people used to get married or even remarried, so that they do not go astray. He assured Fr. Samuel that he was sending him for research with his family to Yale at the cost of the Emperor. The outcome was “Council of Chalcedon Re- examined” published. It was a great book of truth universally accepted for it revealed several lies of Synods!

Fr. V.C. Samuel was a simple person with very high degree of decency and humility. In Bangalore all Christian organisations bow to him for his royal nature. But how did PG treated him is worth considering.

“Although we had a theological seminary in the year 1815, due to various difficulties it became a recognised institution in the year

1965 only. In 1962, while I was a professor in Serampore University, Fr. Philipose, a member of the Senate, later Bishop Philipose Mar Theophilos, came with a letter from the Catholicos, Geevarghese II, to submit it to the Senate for affiliation. I could do everything for that including filing the application, defending it and getting the affiliation. Thereafter only, we were able to give degree and Master of Theology in the year 1981." This being the fact, PG claimed that he was the person worked for affiliation. It was not true.

V.C. continued, "From June 1981 to May 1990, I worked as professor in our Seminary. Taking into consideration of my qualifications, position and age, other persons in the seminary and the students respected me and loved me for which I am greatly obliged. However, no salary was given for the whole period of ten years." Everyone was convinced that he should be given his salary and perks but PG, the principal, objected it and given 2nd class rail fare, while PG was flying to and fro like a bat! This was his vengeance due to the fact that while PG was a primary school teacher with matriculation and V.C. was principal of a prestigious college under the same management. I remember very well, Fr. Samuel was finding it difficult to meet both ends because, he never worked for money and the employer thought it was better to deprive him. We have also erred in not compensating him because we gave Rs.300/- per month for a person who was appointed by the Cathedral Church for looking after the St. Thomas Orthodox chapel at seva nilayam belonging to Catholic Church. Finally, we felt ashamed because he developed it single handed and made a full fledged Church, to day it is St. Thomas Cathedral. Then he moved to another chapel at Rajaji Nagar, which he developed as a St. Stephen's Church. At that time also I was the secretary of St. Gregorios Cathedral and we have decided to give V.C. a life time pension of Rs.2,500/- per month. Actually he deserved much more. Now the point is, being a Christian, forget about his position as a bishop, how did PG misbehave like this to a colleague, ten years senior, who taught him even how to conduct Holy Eucharist as he had no experience even as an altar boy or as a parish priest. V C liked him because he was very intelligent and very ambitious. He taught him all what he knew. But PG betrayed him in all aspects. It was his very nature!

When the 'Priest Directory' was to be published Fr. Samuel was consulted and he gave enough material to be included in that with the intention to eliminate certain mistakes from the Church Service and Holy Eucharist. Particularly, the use of Syriac in Holy Eucharist, when the common man did not know that language, it sounded unfair. PG did not allow the correction. He refused to include it in the directory and made a deliberate error that V.C. is working in the St. Mary's Church Jalahalli. Vengeance is mine says PG, as a diabolic tool.

When 'Sabha Vignana Kosham' was to be published, V.C. worked for it. Rev. Fr. T.J. Joshua and Dr. K.M. Tharakan expressed their gratitude and praised him for his works but PG made sure that his name was omitted from the current professors as well as the retired professors. Such a diabolic tool went unpunished!

"Just because I got married, he tried his level best, to sink me in sorrows however, merciful God arranged helping hand for me through out and I prayed for him continually. After my marriage, as a deacon, priest and metropolitan he has helped me in the Holy Eucharist. I will continue to pray for him." P.227

"Vengeance is mine," says PG. Everyone at that time realised that Fr. V.C. Samuel got married when he was a priest. No one objected it because he had a lot of friends and they all approved it. They were enlightened friends and knew very well up to 16th century, priest marriage and remarriage was common in all Orthodox Churches. After the Catholic amalgamation only the tradition came that priest should not get married. But PG took it as an offence and ridiculed him in every meetings and conferences. Such a thing happened immediately after the speech of Fr. V.C. Samuel in Accra. Without knowing the subject matter, PG gave a very injurious remark connected with his marriage. Dr. Robert Nelson came to Fr. Samuel and said, "Of all people, he should not have said that." That is PG as a diabolic tool!

In another occasion when a meeting was held in Beirut, Lebanon Fr. V. C. Samuel was representing Orthodox Church and PG was representing WCC. Ralph Mould was the president and he had an argument with PG. Finally Ralph said to V.C., "If you say something, the way in which you express yourself, make me feel that I should honour it. But if he says it, I shall be very reluctant to act." At this V.C. advised PG to change his behaviour at least in august forums? Of course PG will never take advice. It happened because VC was held by one and all at high esteem and PG was hated due to his arrogance. He was a liability to all the organizations he worked.

Yet another incident took place, in Whitefield, Bangalore when faith and order director Lukas Fisher was presiding the meeting at Ecumenical Centre. VC and Fisher were very good friends and they maintained the relationship. By that time PG became a bishop. During the meeting PG became very arrogant and entire meeting felt sad. At the end Mr. Fisher told VC, "You must tell Paulose Gregorios that we can also speak as he does. But then it will spoil the atmosphere." I am sure in the Orthodox Church no body will ever believe these rude behaviour of PG. It is his character. Have you noticed one thing? PG betrayed his friend every time because it is his nature.

While editing the book, Swanubhava Vedyil, I found something irregular as regards Paulos Gregorios was concerned. When it was brought to the notice of Fr. Samuel, he asked me time for one day to give his opinion. Next day, he stated “enough subtlety is introduced, if omitted now also, when I will get an opportunity to reveal it? I am 84 years plus. This is my swanubhava vedyil and I was deeply pained by this type of activity of a friend. So let it be there.”

Reluctantly I included that in the book and conveyed it to him promptly. After a couple of months he telephoned me at 5 AM and told me that Paulos Gregorios passed away. “I am sorry I could not heed your advice at that time.” I told him to forget about it. The Lord decides all.

From the foregoing it can be concluded that Paulos Gregorios was the other side of a “Human Wonder” because any other human being will be ashamed of himself. Was he really a human wonder! No body realised that he was a diabolic tool.

FALL OF PAUL VARGHESE FROM THE GRACE OF GOD

PG was completely dissatisfied by the way the world is running. He became a communist just because God is not capable of distributing the wealth in an equal manner. In all world forums he emphasised the point that this civilization is going to end. The following is the quintessence of Dr. Paulos Mar Gregorios vision and mission. “We know that our civilization needs reconstitution, but civilizations are not made out of whole clothes by planners and engineers. We have to make gigantic effort to move from where we are towards where we ought to be going. But it has become difficult to be sure in which direction to move, because the vision is not clear, the fog is dense, and something has gone wrong with our eyesight as well.”

From the beginning he was having a confusion confounded situation. He never tried to find out that Jesus is the “way” to come out from the fog. Through out his life, he was blaming his eyesight and the density of the fog. This was an extra ordinarily clever way to introduce subtlety of his “One World Religion,” a change for the sake of change to satisfy the “all Seeing Eye”¹⁶ or Satan.

Every where he spoke of three self healing subjects; where he claimed to be a practitioner as well as the expert. 1. Yoga 2. Johrei 3. Reiki. In all these practices there is one thing common. Vacate the Holy Spirit and plant an alien spirit in your heart and mind. Name it as cosmic power. What is the cosmic power? In the universe, there are so many planets, stars, meteors and so on and so forth. They are interdependent. They have very huge magnetic power. Taking this into consideration only God has planted it in its appropriate place. The arrangement is such that it is very accurate; there is no need for any maintenance and no much deviation from time immemorial. We admire the accuracy of the creator always! These powers cannot be utilised by humans. However, there are lot of theories and make beliefs in connection with cosmic power. Mostly these are faulty theories. Actual cosmic power is what is mentioned in the Holy Bible. It can be called cosmic because it is in that realm. Let us start from Jesus and end up with Paul. Jesus said, “When an impure spirit comes out of a person, it goes through arid places seeking rest and does not find it. Then it says, ‘I will return to the house I left.’ When it arrives, it finds the house unoccupied, swept clean and put in order. Then goes he, and takes with himself seven other spirits more wicked than him, and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first. Even so shall it be also unto this wicked generation” (Matthew 12:43-45). So it is evident that the so called power is from and through the evil spirits. “For we wrestle not, against flesh and blood; but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places” (Ephesians 6:12). Again Jesus said, “Here comes the prince of this world, but he has no power over me” (John14:30). Intellectuals call it cosmic power!

PG opened the window for Satan and he made him a diabolic tool and advocated three methods of self- healing and he claims to be “Our Healer.” In actuality he could not heal himself. He went behind three methods; all of them require vacating of the Holy Spirit for installing another alien spirit. Let us examine:

1. CHRISTANITY AND YOGA

Jews and Christians are the most insensitive people to God. They are also absolutely selfish and thankless. The Holy Bible qualifies them as “prostitutes.” Jewish prophets admitted that the Jews are prostitutes. They have exhibited their thanklessness by rejecting their promised ‘one and only Messiah’ Jesus Christ. They always go behind other gods. Christians also are like that. They will go behind yoga stating that it is only an exercise. It is not true. PG advocated it to betray us as a diabolic tool. If you reject your Holy Spirit then what is left in you? But then the Jews stopped their prostitution once for all, though they have refused to return to their beloved husband, their Almighty God. Apostle Paul makes a sincere effort to present Christians as virgins without blemishes and shrinkage to the bridegroom Jesus, until he was beheaded. After him, till today, innumerable evangelists have tried their best to keep reminding Christians to keep away from iniquities but to no avail. They continued to do prostitution, they had five husbands but the present man they sleep with is not their husband, Yoga. Paulos Gregorios advocates yoga and recommend it as an alternative cure. In yoga the self is God. From the beginning he was talking about freedom from God which was nothing short of alienation from God and ended up in self as God.

Who are you to comment about yoga, you are a practising Christian? True, I am a practising Christian, after the age of 64 (2006) and until then I was a selfish, thankless Christian for names sake who hurt my Savoir Jesus Christ shamelessly. I practiced yoga from the age of 17 till 64 irregularly. I reached up to the first level of kunthalini yoga. Next stage is the spiritual part of yoga. At that time I had the 4th encounter with the Holy Spirit. I do not know whether I can use the word 'encounter'. It is not like the encounter of Paul. Paul is Paul and I am only a vermin Thomas, not even worthy to be called a slave of my Lord. However, His Mercy protected me from the devil and picked me up and made me a disciple.

Before I delve into the subject of yoga, may I make clear certain unpleasant facts?

1. God created the heaven and earth very long ago.
2. His first lot of children of God were the angels with six wings, called the Seraphim, four wings called the Cherubim and the two wings called the angels.
3. They were obedient children of God and they ruled the whole universe for billions of years in peace and tranquillity and it is named as satyuga.
4. Their leader was an arch angel named Sataniel also called Lucifer because he was an angel of light who was made with an additional dose of phosphorus; he shines.
5. God entrusted everything to him because he was the most upright among the angels.
6. Lucifer became very proud and his self became god; he rebelled against the Almighty God and among the total angel forces, 33 crores joined hands with him in his rebellion.
7. Another arch angel, Michael chased them, cut them off and defeated them, felled them and threw them away from the Heaven.

8. Lucifer and his 33,00,00,000 are called the fallen angels, devil are only few that is Lucifer and his arch angels but the remaining are demons.
9. They were Cherubim and angels but never Seraphim.
10. The Cherubim had four wings and that is why some of the demons are depicted with four hands.
11. The fallen angels were children of God; addressed in different parts of the world in different names. In India Brahma, Vishnu, Maheswara, Sun, Moon, Kali, Saraswathi, Maha Lakshmi etc; in Babylonian countries they are Baal, Astheroth, Marduk, Nimrod, Tamuz etc; in Persian countries Jupitor, Rostom, Sun, Moon etc.
12. The fallen angels are capable of taking birth as they wish as we have Matsya, Koorma, Varaha, Narasimha during the Kritha yuga which extended for a period of 17,28,000 years; Vamana, Parasurama and Sri Rama during the Treta yuga which extended for a period of 12,96,000 years; Balarama and Krishna during the Dwapara yuga which extended for a period of 8,64,000 years and the present Kali yuga which is extended for a period of 4,32,000 years.
13. God has created his son Adam only somewhere between end of Dwapara yuga and beginning of Kali yuga.
14. Yoga means union with Hindu gods. It is a mixture of Calling up the dead, Demon worship, Divination, Enchantment, Necromancy, Neo- paganism, Sorcery, Spirits worship and witchcraft.

WHAT IS YOGA?

All of yoga is Hinduism. Yoga means yoke and it can be defined as a religious practice to get yoked with Hindu gods through physical, mental and spiritual practices. Yoga offers a kind of salvation. This salvation is attained by meditation that is to bring you into a state of peace, enlightenment, open the door of physical knowledge, and can bring extraordinary power. But this power is an illusion of self- grandeur, it is occult, and very dangerous because the spirit you invite into your mind, is a demon or fallen angel. You are 'not' uniting with a higher- spirit, an ascended master or a spirit- guide; you are uniting with a counterfeit spirit who is delighted to deceive you into thinking it as a positive energy but in truth it is demonic. Several people tried to explain it but Satan will finish them off before it is published. In my case, he will run away from me as I am under the cover of the Holy Spirit.

There are number of yogas. It is an age old practice of Hindu yogis but when the 'New Age' people adapted, it became very popular in western countries. They have lost the reasoning power and follow it without knowing what yoga is, investing very huge amount. The best known yogas are Hata yoga and Raja yoga; Iyanger yoga is only a derivative of the yoga. The yoga teaches the disciples to get rid of the spirit of not only pain but also pleasure. Even if the Holy Spirit dwells in you, get rid of that. Stretching, bending, breathing exercises and asana are not yoga but preparations for practicing Yoga which can elevate us to a different realm.

It can offer you a healthy body, stable mind, great intellectual capacities and inexplicable spiritual capabilities. Thus yoga is very complex in nature and to be practiced very cautiously under a yoga guru. Yoga is a paranormal knowledge to be kept hidden as it is meant for only certain people. It is esoteric as it is pertaining to the inner most. It is an Astral projection (or astral travel) interpreted as an "out- of- body experience" (OBE) that assumes the existence of an "astral body" separate from the physical body and capable of travelling outside.

1. Bhagavad Gita. It speaks about three yoga:

a) Karma yoga advocates action. Even if your own mother is on the way, remove her and proceed further. Arjuna is ordered to kill his great grandfather Bhishma by Krishna because he is a hurdle on the way.

- b) Bhakti yoga advocates devotion to Shiva as Ishwara.
- c) Jnana yoga advocates knowledge of Brahma.

2. Yogasutras of Patanjili. It is considered as the classic book of yoga called Ashtanga yoga which is also called Raja Yoga because it is ultimately leading to Samadhi.
3. Hatha Yoga Pradipika. It denotes a system of physical techniques of yoga. Hindu tradition believes that Shiva himself is the founder of Hatha Yoga. It explains Hatha, mantra, tantra and laya achieved by the following eight limbs; 1. Yama. 2. Niyama. 3. Asana. 4. Pranayama. 5. Pratyahara. 6. Dharana. 7. Dhyana. 8. Samadhi.
4. The Shaiva Yoga text. Amanaska explains Raja yoga as the yoga of consciences. The goal of raja yoga is to stop the thought process so that one can see what underlies it. It teaches to liberate the mind from all sorts of consciences and fix it on Siva or Iswara.
5. Upanishads. It forms the basic material for all yoga texts. Yoga Upanishad contains 20 original texts on different aspects of theory and practice of Yogic techniques.

KUNDALINI YOGA

Kundalini is said to be an intelligent biological mechanism, operating in each one of us that is responsible for all forms of spiritual experience, genius, insanity, evolution and enlightenment. Yoga is yoke with Hindu gods like Brahma and Shiva. Yoga theory teaches that everything is divine and the goal is to reach union with Brahma, your higher self, god, or the universe, depending on what gurus are trying to teach you. The practice of Yoga, the asana and prana yama prepares the body for the occult changes that will arouse the coiled power (Kundalini) at the base of spine. This power can travel up the spine passing through the Chakras to the top of your head (Crown Chakra). It is the ultimate goal for the Kundalini (Serpent Power) to reach the brain. The “OM” which is repeated over and over again is to empty the mind of thought so that a new spirit can enter. The sound “om,” chanted in many yoga classes, is meant to bring students into a trance and create a sort of numbness and then nothingness and then you are prompted to ‘step out of body’ so that your mind become empty and it can join with the universal mind to accept the new spirit. This new spirit is called the god. When we say ‘Namasthe’ to someone it means, “I bow to the god within you.” Bear in mind this is not God. God is the supreme power who cannot be tuned according to our will. This god whom we are talking about is a fallen angel capable of exercising evil powers to control our activity. So beware of that god!

HOW IS KUNDALINI YOGA ACHIEVED?

After practicing yogasana and elementary pranayama, sufficient experience is to be acquired in pranayama to move further. It is not breathing- in and breathing- out. Several months or even sometimes few years may be required to practice this type of pranayama. After sitting naked in padmasana, inhale on a count of 8 seconds and exhale on a count of 16 seconds until the body feels absolutely normal. Then after the inhalation, retain it to the extent possible easily. Increase the time gradually over a period of time. It may take even years. Practice this until you are able to retain a minimum of 120 seconds or two minutes minimum. It will take quite some time to achieve this state. When the retention is crossed 15 units of 8 seconds (It also varies from person to person) the kundalini will start to evoke and start moving from the bottom of the vertebrae towards the brain through the nadies Ida and Pingala and through the chakras. When it reaches the brain, the current flowing through the brain get heated up and gradually stir it up. This state of affair continues to the limit of the student's ability to retain the breath. Up to this time we were talking about the conscious breathing only. May I reveal one secret thing in yoga, all are talking about snake power; what is that snake power? In the ultimate stage of retention, the occluded gas tries to escape through the anus but there is no way out. Then it tries to coil up to two or two and a half circles around the anus. As it is moving you will feel that you are sitting on a live snake of the diameter of a round worm. This is nothing but escaping of a small portion of the slightly heated air, retained in the system. No one will tell this and keep it as a secret and call it real snake, cobra what and what not. First experience we will be astonished and try to feel it by hand, the snake escapes, because you have lifted your thigh. Through out my practice, I was chanting "Our Father who art in heaven" because I do not believe anything else on earth. I have not gone beyond this point.

I have practised yoga up to this and then the question of emptying the mind comes. It is dangerous and for a Christian it is forbidden. If you empty your mind and allow a demon to be seated there, you are finished. As a Christian you survive on the principle, "you are the temple of God and the Spirit of God dwells in you." If you do away with it you are gone with the wind. If anyone is advising you to practice yoga, he is taking you for a ride; depriving your faith in Jesus! That is what Paulos Gregorios did. He was advocating everyone to practise yoga without knowing what adverse effect it had.

At this stage, we can consciously step out and our mind can be opened to all sorts of demonic spirits of fear, depression, lust and deception and false beliefs. To proceed further, the other limbs of the Hatha yoga must be employed.

From now on we have to master the process of concentration or Dharana, the 6th limb of yoga. Now you have to surrender everything to god and concentrate on god. If you have given a seat to Brahma, you also become Brahma and a sort of oneness is achieved. Now you are ready for practising Dhyana, the 7th limb of yoga. Meditation and meditation done by repeating certain occult terms innumerable times, until your mind reaches a state of numbness, expecting that we have reached our hopes, wishes and desires. Finally we reach the 8th limb called Samadhi, as a state of ecstasy, a feeling that we achieved all our hopes, wishes and desires. It is the fulfilment or interconnectedness with all living things or a feeling that I am Brahma, "I am holier than thou." They call it salvation!

Dharana, Dhyana and Samadhi are achieved by invoking the kundalini. Earlier we reached up to the culmination of the conscious level. Mind you, you are in retention stage of your breath beyond 120 seconds to any seconds. The flow of life breath is moving faster through ida and pingala, through the chakras into the brain. Between 104 seconds and beyond, you will have strange feelings which cannot be explained. It may include seeing geometrical figures, lights, water fall etc. All these experiences depend on your mind and after emptying your mind, which spirit you have set in and your degree of devotion to it.

Now on you are going to be in the unconscious state of mind. It depends on the god you have accepted during the course of your dhyana. Unconsciously, breathing is controlled by specialized centres in the brainstem, which automatically regulate the rate and depth of breathing depending on the body's needs at any time. When carbon dioxide levels increase in the blood, it reacts with the water in blood, producing carbonic acid. Lactic acid produced by fermentation during exercise also lowers pH. The drop in the blood's pH stimulates chemo receptors in the carotid and aortic bodies as well as those inside the respiratory centre in the medulla oblongata. Now we know that the changes that take place in our brain are of complex nature. Beyond this stage is called salvation. If you go behind it you are lost. If you are a Christian there is no need of practicing yoga and the meaning of the word salvation is something entirely different!

What happens then? The ultimate goal of enlightenment. Let us take a look at what the experts say. Swami Narayananda describes some of the possibilities: "These hot currents that reach the brain centre heat the brain, make the mind fickle, and bring insomnia, brain disorder, insanity and incurable diseases. For the hot currents keep the mind wide awake and if a person does not know how to check the currents and to bring down the partly risen kundalini shakti to safer centres, one suffers terribly and it may ruin the whole life of a person or lead one to insanity. This is why we see many become insane, many get brain defects, and many others get some incurable diseases after deep sorrow." Therefore, Christians please keep away from Yoga.

Gopi Krishna, founder of one of the many kundalini research centres, records his own experience: "It was variable for many years, painful, obsessive, and even fantastic. I have passed through almost all the stages of different mediumistic, psychotic, and other types of mind; for some time I was hovering between sanity and insanity."

PG states that he practiced it and advocated yoga as an alternative cure for all of us. He proved himself to be a classic liar and diabolic tool to harvest our soul to please his "all seeing eye." As soon as he started practicing it, he fell ill by a stroke. "Hand this man over to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may be saved on the day of the Lord (1 Corinthians 5:5). Satan, whom he trusted more than his God, took him for a further ride!

2. CHRISTIANITY AND JOHREI

PG says, Then he practised, “Another example comes from the modern Prophet Mokichi Okada of Japan, who developed the healing art of Johrei, based on spiritual energy, as one aspect of a whole complex of holistic healing techniques, including exposure to beauty, organic farming, and abstaining from chemical drugs and fertilizers. His theoretical basis is the clear conviction that the sensible world is under girded and directed by the spiritual universe. His system is now practised in many countries by his disciples.

Attitudes are fundamental for health and healing— attitudes towards oneself, towards reality as such, towards one’s own stress and suffering, but also attitudes to others to their woes and joys, to their ills and sorrows, to their welfare and fulfilment.” Two healing energies emerged in Japan during the first quarter of the twentieth century: Reiki and Johrei. Both are healing energies, but the two are completely different in lineage, frequency, purpose, use and method of training, as part of its ongoing commitment to lineage, to healing and to earth healing in the eclectic mode. In addition to quite different origins, there are many other distinguishing differences between Johrei and Reiki. Reiki is an attuned energy opened in the student by an appropriately trained Reiki Master. Reiki energy moves through the body and the chakras of the Reiki practitioner and out the hands to whomever the practitioner offers the energy. Johrei, on the other hand, is energy of intent anchored and activated by a Focal Point worn about the Johrei practitioner’s neck and obtained after a period of training with a minister of the Johrei Fellowship. As a non- attuned energy, Johrei moves through the practitioner’s upheld hand during a Johrei session rather than through the entire body.” Here also the practitioner is expected to empty his heart and mind and install the dead guru Mokichi Okada will act as a medium. For Christian it is forbidden. When he practised Johrei, the devil took him for a ride and he was attacked by cancer. “Hand this man over to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may be saved on the day of the Lord” (1 Corinthians 5:5).

3. CHRISTIANITY AND REIKI

As a last resort he started practicing Reiki. “While Reiki is used in hands- on treatments and is intended to be placed in the body of the client with the intent of balancing physical as well as mental and emotional health, Johrei is beamed into the aura of a seated recipient with the goal of burning away “spiritual clouds” or energetic blockages. Reiki is designed to work on physical healing as well as on mental emotional issues; Johrei addresses spiritual energetic issues in the aura which in turn influences physical health. Although an oversimplification of two powerful healing energies, it is often said that Reiki is the feminine or “water” energy, Johrei the masculine or “fire” energy. Without doubt, the two energies, while quite different, are complementary in their action. Each has its appropriate applications; each is a powerful form of energy healing. There is one other significant difference in the two energies. Reiki is not a religion, has no dogma and no tenets of faith. Johrei energy is taught within the context of the Johrei Fellowship, a quasi- religious organization based on Japanese spiritual beliefs as represented in the teachings of Meishu- sama (Mokichi Okada), the man to whom Johrei was given. It is not necessary to follow the Johrei spiritual teachings to use Johrei energy for healing, but people need to be aware that a spiritual and dogmatic structure is part of Johrei training. The training is not offensive or overly challenging to other beliefs. Many of the concepts of chakras, energetic blockages in the aura, and the origins of illness in emotional and spiritual issues will be totally familiar to Reiki practitioners trained in traditional Reiki lineages. Johrei practitioners, like those in Reiki, find that using Johrei energy in no way interferes with their beliefs in whatever traditional religion they follow. To the contrary, as with Reiki, Johrei provides a deeper sense of connection to the universal energies of Source. Source is Satan.

“Conclusion: I am an Eastern Orthodox bishop. My people call me Hasyo deelan, which means “Our Healer.” True spiritual ministry is the healing of people - body and soul. In our tradition, salvation means healing, giving life where death rules.”

Although PG is calling himself a prophet, Mokichi Okada of Japan was a person who taught his students to remember him by putting a locket in their neck and just invoke him. The dead person will come to them, hear the problem and do the needful. He died about 100 years ago. So what you invoked is his spirit; or in other words necromancy. This is forbidden for Christians. He wore the locket of Mokichi Okado along with the Cross around his neck. When he started practicing this technique, he was almost disappointed and mentally derailed. People thought it is the repetition of his mother’s mental illness. In reality he became a victim of Satan who betrayed him. “Hand this man over to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may be saved on the day of the Lord” (1 Corinthians 5:5).

Here the question is could he heal anyone? Did any one call him ‘Hasyo deelan’ or ‘our healer’? On these three healing techniques he vacated Holy Spirit from his heart three times! That is exhibited by his abusing God when he got an attack of chicken pox. He was never ready to be forgiven; he never wanted to be treated as a slave; according to him, god is praised on his dignity. This way, he fell from the grace of God!

Last year of his life he said he confessed. He did not confess that he went to the Hindu temple and took prasadam offered to the idols and ate it. He did not confess that he went and accepted the blessings of the Hindu poojaris. He did not confess that he has betrayed the Orthodox Church, WCC, Education department of Ethiopia but simply mentioned all these. He did not confess that Pope John Paul II asked him to get out of his room because he praised Shankara and Ramanujam instead of Thomas Aquinas. He did not confess that the Director of Education of Ethiopia told him on his face, “He does not want to see his face.” In nutshell it can be ascertained that where ever he went he brought disgrace for the Orthodox Church, while we were praising him to sky high! He was a square peg in a round hole, wherever he went. Joshua said to the Israelites, “If you do not follow the commandments of God, you will be thrown away.” PG was thrown away. But he was wise enough to practice how to live after death on this earth. According to John D. Kunnath now he is active in Denmark!¹⁰

THE HOLY BIBLE OF 'PAURASTHYA CHRISTAVA DARSHANAM'

I always tried to follow Luke 10:27, “Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbour as thyself.” However, I failed miserably every time. The strangest thing I never understood is that the merciful God forgives me every time. Nevertheless, I love the Lord and adore His book, the Holy Bible as most precious thing on earth. If anyone tries to ridicule the Holy Bible I get hurt. I happened to read a book titled, Paurasthya Christava Darshanam written by Dr. Palous Gregorios. This book is included in the curriculum of graduate course. The strangest thing is that no one ever bothered to find the blunder in it. In that book, one chapter is titled, “The Holy Bible.”

Here I will try to point out certain errors from this chapter. In the Orthodox Church he is considered as little less than Almighty. Our people do not know that little less than almighty is the name of Lucifer. In fact, according to the bio- data given by him, he is an exponent of sacred traditions; Promoter of unity among Orthodox Churches; Ecumenical leader devoted to interfaith dialogue and cooperation; President of the World Council of Churches; scholar, philosopher, author, educationist, editor, linguist, public speaker, socio- political thinker, advocate of women’s equality, environmental integrity and holistic health; crusader against exploitation, discrimination, neo- colonialism and religious- cultural arrogance; activist for disarmament, justice and peace, what and what not. There is no doubt about it; he is little less than Almighty.

I have gone through all his books and found that whenever he deals with Biblical matters, he is wrong. There is not a single book written by him without errors, cardinal errors when it is related to the Holy Bible. Therefore, it is not fair to call him a biblical scholar, although he claims to be. The other important factor is that he is not a theologian at all. You please see the Orthodox TV and watch “Spirituality a class by Paulos Gregorios,” neither he knows spirituality nor he is a theologian. People have accepted his words without any question because they did not have discernment. They did not verify it with the Holy Bible. When they heard about him he seemed higher than the Everest! It was true that he had one doctorate and a couple of honorary doctorates. They were related to Karl Marx and Communism. That alone would not make him eligible to become the Principal of a prestigious Theological Seminary.

In the year 1961 there was a Convention in St. Thomas Church, Karthikappally, Kerala. The first day’s speaker was Fr. M.V. George, a real missionary (later, His Grace Geevarghese Mar Osthathios) and he asked for a person who can find references from the Bible and read aloud immediately. Our Vicar proposed my name and I stood in front of the mike for the first time. He spoke for the people of that area by quoting several portions from the Holy Bible and made them aware that, we have a great hope in the salvation that Jesus provided. We should live according to his commandments. It was marvellous. The next day was a newly ordained priest, Fr. Paul Varghese (later Paulos Gregorios), the author in question. He never wanted any assistance to read the Bible because he did not quote from the Bible at all but gave an intellectual and philosophical speech using several Greek words. It was Latin and Greek for the people of that area and the people did not follow much except the geographical explanation of Ethiopia and its Emperor, Haile Selassie. However, as usual, they said, "what a great speaker!" That great speaker is the author of the book in question.

The chapter, "Holy Bible" is in the form of questions and answers. He questions and he himself answers.

Question No.1. Is the Holy Bible the basis of the Christian faith?

Answer: No. Incarnate Christ is the basis of Christian faith. The disciples and apostles and the Church were the main witnesses. A collection of the books written by these disciples and apostles is called the New Testament. The church is not established on the basis of the New Testament. New Testament is written by the members of the Church.

The question is about the Holy Bible and the answer is about the New Testament. Taking an about turn, denying what he said earlier and introducing systematic lie is very common with this writer. Deliberately he omitted the Old Testament to please the devil. If you allow the devil to sit on our shoulder, he will dictate like this and we will write all wrong things. When the Holy Bible was in existence, the word 'Church' was foreign, non existent.

We can derive our faith from the Holy Bible where we meet our Christ in the Old Testament, although Christ was before the Old Testament. Promised Messiah is in the Old Testament. Our faith is based on the Holy Bible consisting of Old Testament and New Testament both. Our father Abraham is called the father of faith. He is in the Old Testament. Now it is appropriate to think of the beginning of the Holy Bible. Moses wrote the Pentateuch; but he was indebted to the book of Job which was written approximately 430 years before Moses by the third son of Issachar, one of the sons of Jacob (Genesis 46:13). The salvation story of Christ begins in Genesis 3:15. "Her offspring will crush your head," meaning Jesus the saviour will win over death and sin, defeating Satan and grant us our salvation. Our father in Heaven gave us the hope of glory in the book of Genesis itself. This hope is renewed by the Lord in Isaiah 7:14. "Therefore, the LORD himself shall give you a sign; Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel." Also see the magnitude of the Son in Isaiah 9:6, "For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given and the government shall be upon his shoulder and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, the Mighty God, the Everlasting Father, and the Prince of Peace." Glory to God; this is not from the New Testament. Also see the Old Testament Church, Acts 7:37-38. "This is that Moses who told the Israelites, God will send you a prophet like me from your own people. He was in the assembly in the desert, with the angel who spoke to him in the Mount Sinai and with our fathers; and he received living words to pass on to us." New Testament is written by the members of the church he says; but 2 Timothy 3:16 says, "All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and it is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness." Romans 1:16 says, "For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to everyone." The Bible is written by 40 people (not only disciples of Jesus) by the inspiration of the Holy Spirit who is the real author.

He misguided a lot of people, including His Grace Geevarghese Mar Osthathios by saying that the Church gave us the Bible. It is not true. The word Church first came only when: "Jesus replied: blessed are you Simon, son of Jonah, for this was not revealed to you by man, but by my Father in heaven. And I tell you that you are Peter, and on this rock (Christ) I will build my Church and the gates of Hades will not overcome it" (Matthew 16:17,18). We have seen the first book of the Holy Bible Job, was with us before 2000 BCE. What did Jesus read in the Jerusalem Temple about Christ? Isaiah 53 of BCE 701. Paulos Gregorios was a collection of blunders!

See how the Old Testament of the Holy Bible speaks about Christ:

1. Deuteronomy 18:15. "The LORD will raise up for you a prophet like me from among yourselves, from your own kinsmen. You are to pay attention to him ... ¹⁸I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their kinsmen. I will put my words in his mouth, and he will tell them everything I order him." In Acts 3:18-22, Peter claimed that Jesus was the fulfilment of this promise. Jesus is the Messiah.
2. Ezekiel 37:26-27. "I will make a covenant of peace with them, an everlasting covenant. I will give to them, increase their numbers, and set my Sanctuary among them forever. My dwelling place will be with them; I will be their God, and they will be my people." Jesus and His believers.
3. Daniel. 9:24-27. "Anointed" ("Messiah") and "prince" have been interpreted as speaking of Jesus, and the phrase "anointed shall be cut off" as pointing to his crucifixion. The "people of the prince who is to come" refers to the Romans who destroyed Jerusalem and the Temple in AD 70. Jesus is the anointed Messiah and the Prince.

4. Haggai 2:6-9. "This is what the Lord Almighty says: In a little while I will once more shake the heavens and the earth, the sea and the dry land. I will shake all nations, and the desired of all nations will come, and I will fill the house with glory." Israel was formed in 1948.
5. Hosea 11:1. "When Israel was a child, I loved him, and out of Egypt I called my son." (Matthew 2: 13-15). Jesus recalled.
6. Isaiah 7:14. The virgin's son is Jesus.
7. Isaiah 8:23-9:1 cf. Matthew 4:14-16. Refers to Jesus
8. Isaiah 9:5. "For a child will be born to us, a son will be given to us; And the government will rest on His shoulders; And His name will be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The Mighty God, The Everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace"— This is Jesus (Isaiah 9:6).
9. Isaiah 11:12. He will raise a banner for the nations and gather the exiles of Israel; he will assemble the scattered people of Judah from the four quarters of the earth.
10. Isaiah 53:5. "But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him, and with his stripes we are healed. But he was pained because of our transgressions, crushed because of our iniquities; the chastisement of our welfare was upon him, and with his wound we were healed." Crucifixion of Jesus.
11. Jeremiah 31:15. Matthew 2:17-18 gives the killing of innocents by Herod as the fulfilment of a prophecy spoken of in Jeremiah. This happened during the time of Jesus childhood.

12. Micah 5:2 (Micah 5:1 in Hebrew). "But thou, Beth- lehem Ephrathah, which art little to be among the thousands of Judah, out of thee shall one come forth unto Me that is to be ruler in Israel; whose goings forth are from of old, from ancient days" (Micah 5:1) Jesus, King of Jews!

Now you may have a question, do you think he does not know all these simple things? The answer is yes. He did not know for the simple reason "In that hour Jesus rejoiced in Spirit and said, I thank thee O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and the learned, and has revealed them unto babes; even so Father, for it seemed good in thy sight" (Luke10:21). He was wise and learned with Doctorate but everything was hidden from him. "For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, He taketh the wise in their own craftiness" (1 Corinthians 3:19). How true is it about Paulos Gregorios!

Question No.2. How the four gospels did come into existence?
Answer: Church came into existence on the Pentecost day.

Question is about the four gospels and the answer is about Church and Pentecost. It is neither unintentional nor accidental but deliberate to fool the readers as usual. He was neither a biblical scholar nor a true Christian as he sold himself to his teacher, the 'All Seeing Eye.'

Question No.10. Have you received the manuscript copies of the books of the Holy Bible?

Answer: No. Not even one. Old Testament books might have been written in leather scrolls or in papyrus. Today's Old Testament also is translated in Cairo between AD 1008 to 1010 periods based on a single manuscript which is kept in Leningrad. New Testament manuscripts which we use today are also written between AD 300-500 periods.

Please note his denial, not even a single manuscript. Hebrew Bible Pentateuch and Tanakh and Talmud manuscripts have been preserved from BCE 950. Then we had the manuscripts according to The Aleppo Codex since 920 CE. Later we had manuscripts of Leningrad Codex dated 1008 CE. In 1947 the finding of the Dead Sea scrolls at Qumran pushed the manuscripts history of the Tanakh back to a millennium from the two earliest complete codices. Before this discovery, the earliest extant manuscripts of the Old Testament were in Greek in manuscripts found at Qumran, such as Codex Vaticanus and Codex Sinaiticus. Out of the roughly 800 manuscripts found at Qumran, 220 are from the Tanakh. Every book of the Tanakh is represented except for the book of Esther; however, most are fragmentary. Notably, there are two books of Isaiah. These manuscripts generally dated between 150 BCE to 70 CE, because they have been re-written meticulously from time to time for over 2000 years, under the providential care of the Holy Spirit. Re-written manuscripts were numbered according to the Hebrew fashion and recorded at the end and certified by competent authority. Holy Bible is basically a book of the people of God, the Jews and they preserved the manuscripts religiously.

Among the New Testament manuscripts, Codex Alexandrines contains the Gospel of Luke with decorative tailpiece. Part of the New Testament have been preserved in more manuscripts than any other ancient work, having over 5,800 complete or fragmented Greek manuscripts, 10,000 Latin manuscripts and 9300 manuscripts in various other ancient languages including Syriac, Slavic, Gothic, Ethiopic, Coptic and Armenian. The dates of these manuscripts range from C.125 to 15th Century. But they were re-written when the papyrus was damaged, maintaining the accuracy meticulously.

The Dead Sea Scrolls are a testimony to the accuracy and preservation of the Old Testament manuscripts. It gives confidence that the Old Testament we have today is the same as the one used by Jesus. In fact, Luke records a statement of Jesus regarding the assemblage of the Old Testament: "For this reason also the wisdom of God said, 'I will send to them prophets and apostles, and some of them they will kill and some they will persecute, so that the blood of all the prophets, shed since the foundation of the world, may be charged against this generation, from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah, who was killed between the altar and the house of God; yes, I tell you, it shall be charged against this generation" (Luke 11:49–51). Jesus confirmed the 39 books of the Old Testament in these verses. Abel's death is found in Genesis and Zechariah's in 2 Chronicles—the first and the last books of the Hebrew Bible.

Note his emphatic 'no' and the overemphasis 'not even one' and then he says in Leningrad there was one. How small he became! This is with the venomous intention to perpetuate that the Holy Bible had no authentic origin. As he was an anointed bishop of our beloved Church, we hesitate to call him a liar but look at the face of Jesus and it reminds us his word (John 8:44). I will show you several lies told by him and his emphatic denial after making a statement. We cannot blame him because he takes instruction from the Devil, the Master of lies!

Question No.11. Are there errors in the Bible?

Answer: Yes. (a) There are three types of errors. In Genesis chapter 1, man is created after creating all creatures but in Chapter 2, before grass and trees grown man is created; animals are created because there was no mate for man.

This answer is designed by the devil and put into his mouth. This made me to doubt his thesis and his doctorate which I have already explained. Genesis Chapter 1 narrates the complete creation by six days. On the sixth day: "So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them. God blessed them and said to them “Be fruitful and increase in number; fill the earth and subdue it. Rule over the fish of the sea and birds of the air and over every living creature that moves on the ground.” Ge.1:27-28. God created them, blessed them and taught them how to multiply and subdue the earth and appointed them as rulers over everything. Chapter 2 explains the minute details by telling: “This is the account of the heavens and the earth when they were created” (Genesis 2:4). Anyone can understand that Chapter 2 is an explanation of chapter 1. The devil went behind it to find fault with the Holy Bible. Then he says: animals are created because there was no mate for man. The source of this piece of information is from his teacher the devil. God is very clear of all things; man and animals are of different species; he created them male and female in Chapter 1 itself, that too in his own image. Trying to substitute animal for man’s mate is the idea of his teacher, the devil. How shameful is it! It is not only blasphemy but also an offence. He must be punished for this offence and his dead body must not rest with our saints! Some of the readers will be infuriated because they are thinking charcoal is diamond. Charcoal is charcoal and diamond is diamond. I am a single grain of sand on the sandals of my Lord Jesus! That is a great honour for me. I fear not the devil. He runs away from this honourable grain of sand. I have explained that in “Rebellious House.” Our Lord is “the Way, the Truth and the Life. We must not entertain absolute lies. Liars will not enter the kingdom of our Lord God. Animals are created because there was no mate for man, says the Devil!

(b) Genesis 7:2-5, seven each of clean animals and two each of unclean animals entered the Ark. In 7:8, they are only two each.

The author was a great philosopher but as regards Bible and Theology he was foolish, “For the wisdom of this world is foolishness in God’s sight” (1 Corinthians 3:19. Pairs of clean and unclean animals, of birds and of all creatures that move along the ground, male and female came to Noah and entered the Arc as God had commanded Noah" (Genesis 7:8-9). "As God had commanded Noah," means it was an order to all creatures. They were disciplined; the door of the Ark was designed by God. They will not enter 7 after 7. They will enter male and female, two by two only. Such mistakes always come to him because he is taking instruction from the devil; he was never a disciple of Jesus and he knew nothing about the Holy Spirit. I will explain it later.

Question No.12. If there are errors in the bible how can we trust it as the basis of true faith?

Answer: Bible alone cannot be taken as the basis of true faith. If you take bible into consideration for our faith, they are contradicting each other.

Let no fool tries to interpret the Holy Bible. It is to be interpreted by the Bible itself with the help of the Holy Spirit. The author never trusted the Holy Bible and he never had true faith. He did not have any experience with the Holy Spirit because he showed that he is unable to distinguish between fruit of the Holy Spirit and gift of the Holy Spirit. That is the very elementary knowledge of the Holy Spirit. He did not have it. As a communist, secularist and agnostic, he went away from true faith and he earned the nickname, 'The Red Bishop.'

a) The first two chapters indicate that God created the whole world in six days and because of the physical exertion he took rest on the seventh day.

Blasphemy! "Physical exertion" is put by the devil into his mouth. It is not quoted from the Holy Bible. He wanted to show that our Almighty God is a mere mortal person who cannot work for more than 8 hours! If the Holy Bible says that God created the whole universe in six days, it has got only one meaning: He created in six days only. Our God is capable of doing it in less than six seconds also!

By this, God taught us a great lesson; if you have worked six days a week, you deserve rest on the seventh day, one day as earned leave. “At least spend that time with me my children; I am your God!”

(b) If Sun is created on the fourth day, how did God measure 24 hours for the first three days?

Blasphemy! This question is also put into his mouth by the devil. Sun is created on the first day. “And God said, ‘Let there be light,’ and there was light. God saw that the light was good and he separated the light from the darkness. God called the light day and the darkness he called night. And there was evening and there was morning – the first day” (Genesis 1:3-5).

(c) These six days of 24 hours need not be taken as six days and it can be treated as six periods as taught by our fathers.

Blasphemy! Fathers are a bad word; it must be used in singular and He is our Heavenly Father. So we can ignore what the fathers say. The author of the book in question was not only a father but also a spiritual father, in that he was a bishop. He has done the ground work; shortly, he will be elevated to the level of a ‘holy father’ and his clothes will be venerated as “relics” and we will have to honour him as Holy Saint. He got so many things named after him; yearly symposium, Gregorios Chair, ten yearly kasarath (exercise) by intellectuals are also established. But for the children of God if the Holy Bible says six days, it means six days and it does not mean six periods. Six periods is the teaching of the devil. Our God is capable of doing it in six seconds!

(d) When Adam was in Eden, he was allowed only vegetarian food. So we can argue that we are supposed to have vegetarian food.

Blasphemy! Philosopher will argue according to his perverted brain. We are taught that we shall not argue with God! People had to give hemlock to stop the tongue, the argument of Socrates. This person had no knowledge of the Holy Bible as people say without having an encounter with him. I have explained one of the encounters I had with him. As usual he was ignorant of a non- vegetarian menu given by God to Noah. He had never read the covenant God had with Noah. "Then Noah built an altar to the Lord and taking some of all the clean animals and clean birds, he sacrificed burnt offerings on it. The Lord smelled the pleasing aroma and said in his heart: "Never again will I curse the ground because of man, even though every inclination of his heart is evil from childhood. And never destroy all living creatures, as I have done" (Genesis 8:20-21). "Then God blessed Noah and his sons, saying to them, "Be fruitful and increase in number and fill the earth. The fear and dread of you will fall upon all the beasts of the earth and all the birds of the air, upon every creature that moves along the ground, and upon all the fish of the sea; they are given into your hands. Everything that lives and moves will be food for you. Just as I gave you the green plants, I now give you everything" (Genesis 9:1-3). It is the teaching of the Holy Bible. PG is absolutely wrong when he says that it is the teaching of the church. By his erroneous statements he and the devil could make every non- vegetarian eater a sinner! Our God is so caring and merciful that he wants you to be happy always.

(e) On the Sabbath day, that is Saturday we are supposed to abstain from all the duties and take rest according to the Bible: we can argue; but the church teaches that Sabbath is not to be observed by us. Does God like us need rest after physical labour?

Let the philosopher argue but the fact of the case is otherwise. Jews, for whom this law was given, there was no need for any change. But for a Christian, the resurrection of our Lord took place on a Sunday. So that is the most blessed day for Christians. That is the day of the Lord! God will be delighted if we spend the day with God on Sunday. God does not need rest. God wanted you to take rest and spend the time with him. Here also he is utterly wrong as usual!

Question No.14. True faith is to be taught by the traditions “Not by the bible” as did the fathers teach?

Answer: Yes. Holy Baselios taught like that.

Blasphemy! First of all, can you call any one Holy when the Holy Bible teaches that other than God there is no one Holy? It is wrong to call Holy Father for holy Tom, holy Dick and holy Harry. Paul said, “We preach Christ crucified.” So preaching is essential for creating faith in the believers and that too from the Holy Bible. Faith is to be learned from the Holy Bible. “How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? And how shall they hear without a preacher?” (Romans 10:14). So it is evident that the basis of faith is from preaching from the word of God.

When we talk about tradition, we know that from A.D. 52 onwards we had the real tradition as taught by St. Thomas. It was perfect when Thomas of Cana (Kanai Thoma) came in the year AD 345. From this period to AD 600 let us hope that there was no malignancy as regards tradition. From this period to AD 1489 the Nestorians infested us; we do not know how much our tradition was hampered by them. Let us leave that also. AD 1489 till 1599 the Portuguese people did all that they wanted including burning our traditional books made in a mixture of Tamil and Malayalam. What happened to our Orthodox Tradition? What Council of Diamper (Udayamperur) says is that the Roman Catholic people made us their slaves. It continued until AD 1654, where we broke the chain through "Koonan Cruz" (Crooked cross). During this period not only that we have lost our tradition but also we became Babylonian gentile faith. It is because the Roman Catholics were neither declared their faith nor baptised. They were descendants of so called Christians recruited by Constantine for war by giving 20 gold coins and a white uniform. They had nothing to do with Jesus but largely worshippers of the Sun, Babylonian pagan faith. According to Bishop Joseph Parekkattil, "against the teaching of the Holy Bible 'not to follow the ways of the pagan' we followed smoking, candles, holy days, blessing of places, wedding ring etc." Further it was published in "Mathrubhoomi daily on 6th December, 1974. In 17th Century only we came in contact with Antiochian Church. After that we have adapted to the Kingly position of bishops, Red belt, strange cap etc. See where our Orthodox tradition went astray. Leaving the Holy Bible PG is telling us to follow the tradition. Which tradition? However, we are better than many other denominations as regards tradition is concerned. Now let us see what our Lord Jesus says about tradition: Jesus replied "And why do you break the commandment of God for the sake of your tradition?" (Matthew 15:3).

"He is not to honour his father with it. Thus you nullify the word of God for the sake of your tradition" (Matthew 15:6). "You have let go of the commands of God and are holding on to the tradition of men" (Mark 7:8). "See to it that no one takes you captive through hollow and defective philosophy which depends on human tradition and the basic principles of this world rather than on Christ" (Colossians 2:8).

"Being more exceedingly zealous of the traditions of my fathers." Paul was going to various cities to kill Christians as per the tradition of the Jews. Now he is ridiculing the tradition of the father in Galatians 1:14. We have a guide, the Holy Bible guided by the Holy Spirit that surpasses everything. It will teach us to maintain good traditions for the glory of God! Bear in mind faith is a fruit of the Holy Spirit. It is never a gift of the Holy Spirit. The author never knew about it. He never tasted Holy Spirit!

Two funny statements:

1) Two very important apostolic fathers are Clement of Rome and Ignatius of Antioch.

It is a blatant lie. The author does not know who is an apostle. He is considering himself as an apostle! He wanted us to consider him as apostle. To be called as an apostle, certain pre- requisites are required:

A) “That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled of the word of life; for the life was manifested, and we have seen it, and bear witness, and showed unto you, that eternal life, which was with the Father, and was manifested unto us” (1 John 1:1-2).

B) As regards putting the lot for Matthias to be an apostle, all the above conditions were met and that is why they ordained him to be a witness. “Beginning from the baptism of John, unto that same day that he was taken up from us, must one be ordained to be a witness with us of his resurrection” (Acts 1:22).

Clement of Rome and Ignatius of Antioch cannot be apostles because they were absent from the baptism of Jesus to the resurrection but they could be merely saints. This indicates that Paulos Gregorios lacked basic knowledge of an apostolic Church. But Orthodox people considered him to be greater than the greatest.

2) It is better not to aspire for special spiritual gifts.²² page 105.

Blasphemy! Paul says, “Eagerly desire the greater gifts” (1 Corinthians 12:31). He blame the bible for its inconsistency as one place tells about few gifts and another place there are more gifts and asks which one to believe? There are Nine Spiritual fruits as mentioned in Galatians 5 and Nine Spiritual Gifts as mentioned in 1Corinthians 12. He refutes 1Corinthians12:31 and escaped unhurt. The author says do not expect special spiritual gifts. He did not know anything about it. He says greatest spiritual gift is love. That is also wrong. Love is not a spiritual gift at all. It is a spiritual fruit (Galatians 5:22-23). He is not able to differentiate between fruits and gifts because he did not have any of them. According to Paul PG is accursed. "But even if we or an angel from heaven should preach a gospel other than the one we preached to you, let them be under God's curse!" He did all that is possible to ridicule Bible.

Can we ever ignore these statements?

"It is impossible to rightly govern the world without God and the Bible." George Washington.

"A studious perusal of the sacred volume will make better citizens, better father, and better husband." Thomas Jefferson.

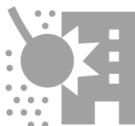

"A man has deprived himself of the best there is in the world who has deprived himself of the Holy Bible." Woodrow Wilson.

"These books the church holds to be sacred and canonical not because she subsequently approved them by her authority after they had been composed by unaided human skill, nor simply because they contain revelation without error, but because, being written under the inspiration of the holy Spirit, they have God as their author, and were as such committed to the church." –First Vatican Council.

In conclusion it can be safely stated that the Holy Bible of "Paurasthya Christava Darshanam" of Paulos Gregorios is a collection of blasphemy!

SPIRITUALITY—A CLASS BY PAULOS GREGORIOS— ORTHODOX TV

Anyone could view Orthodox TV and see that a very great personality takes a class about a cluster of Hebrew words: Mishpat, deen and sadeek. These words he used inadvertently and established his mastery over Hebrew language, while exhibiting the ignorance of the students. Either he could have taken the class in English or in Malayalam. In fact he ridiculed even the viewers of Orthodox TV. The students appeared to be dumbfounded including a priest who was well versed with Hebrew Bible. Can anyone take a class on Spirituality, without using the word Jesus and Holy Spirit? The term “Holy Spirit” was never used and there was nothing about spirituality. At the most you can call it a class on “righteousness.” Although several questions were asked, no one dared to answer any. When a priest tried to answer, he was snubbed. It appeared that the students (VIPs of Orthodox Church) were susceptible to strong suggestions. No one ever reacted to blasphemous statements such as:

1. Judges in the book of Judges were not judges but rulers.

It is blasphemy! God never wanted children of Israel to be ruled by rulers or kings like the gentile nations. He planned and executed Theocracy and not Autocracy for a period of 1400 years until they cried for a king. From Abraham to Samuel, God the Father did everything for the children of Israel through the appointed judges. Judges like Samuel also functioned as prophets and priests. Out of that the ministry of priesthood was the greatest function on earth. The relationship was Father and Children. A single example is enough to prove that it was neither ruler nor king; but God himself (1 Samuel 7:6-11). Let us listen to another Judge: Jephthah, “I have not wronged you, but you are doing me wrong by waging war against me. Let the Lord, the Judge, decide the dispute this day between the Israelites and the Ammonites” (Judges11:27). Let PG understand that they were not rulers but judges allowing God to Judge! Can any ruler or king thunder and win the war? God never wanted children of Israel to be ruled by rulers or kings for the following reasons:

- a) The king will reign over you.
- b) He will take your sons and make them serve with his chariots and horses and they will run in front of the chariots.
- c) Some he will assign to be commanders of thousands and fifties.
- d) Some he will assign to plough the ground and reap his harvests.
- e) Some he will assign to make weapons of war.
- f) Some he will assign to make equipments for his chariots.
- g) He will make your daughters to be perfumers, cooks and bakers.

- h) He will take the best of your fields and wine yards and olive Groves and give them to his attendants.
- i) He will take a tenth of your grain and your vintage and give it his officials and attendants.
- j) Your men servants and maid servants and the best of your cattle and donkeys he will take for his own use.
- k) He will take a tenth of your flocks and you yourselves will become his slaves.
- l) You will cry for relief from the king you have chosen and the Lord will not answer you in that day (1 Samuel 8:11-18).

However, the people asked for a king. God never made robots but his children were given free will. So they said to God, “No! We want a king over us”(1 Samuel 8:19). Until this time the question of ruler was not there and the teacher bluffed the class as usual.

2. There is nothing like the last judgment; left and right people, sheep and goats or throne of judgment.

It is blasphemy! Let us listen to Jesus, “when the son of man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, he will sit on his throne in heavenly glory. All the nations will be gathered before him and he will separate the people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. He will put the sheep on his right and the goats on his left” (Matthew 25:31-33). Let us see the judgment: “Then the king will say to those on the right ‘come you who are blessed by my Father, take your inheritance the kingdom prepared for you, since the creation of the world. For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger, you invited me in, needed clothes and you clothed me, I was sick and you looked after me; I was in prison and you visited me’ (Matthew 25:34-36, 37-46). “At once I was in the Spirit, and behold, a throne stood in heaven, with one seated on the throne" (Revelation 4:2).

Summons, evidence, cross examination, arguments, judgment and decree is passed and even then Paulos Gregorios says that there is nothing like the last judgement. Greatest liar! It is because he was taught by the Devil!

3. There was no court.

It is blasphemy! "Samuel continued to judge over Israel all the days of his life. From year to year he went on a circuit from Bethel, to Gilgal to Mispah judging Israel in all those places. But he always went back to Ramah, where his house was, and there he also judged Israel. Please note there were four courts and circuit houses! And he built an altar there to the Lord" (1 Samuel 7:15-17).

Samuel was leader of Israel at Mispah (1 Samuel 7:7). Samuel was only a leader and not a ruler or a king as claimed by the teacher. Throughout the year and year after year he judged in Circuit court—four times a year at Bethel court, Gilgal court, Mispah court and Ramah court. In spite of such valuable evidences from the Holy Bible, what made him to pass such wrong and injurious comments? It can be attributed to two reasons, 1. In his book 'Paurasthya Christava Darshanam' we have seen that he scoffed and ridiculed the Holy Bible because he had scant respect for the word of God. 2. He never read the Holy Bible with due respect and humility as he was a 'red bishop' sans humility.

4. Mother Theresa was an imperialist and her defect was: she was completely for the rich.

I thank God, for I need not struggle to repudiate this lie because in this generation, there is hardly anyone who does not admire this saint. She was a foreign nun who was deeply moved by the hapless plight of the poor and down trodden slum dwellers of Calcutta. They used to throw the new born babies to the gutter to become mother again and again. Rats used to feast on the new born tender meat of human children. Beloved mother used to run and pick them up as soon as she gets the news of any abandoned babies. She used to get rat eaten bleeding children in deplorable condition; she will embrace them and tenderly nurse them and bring them back to normal honourable life. She served innumerable children and aged people. In the beginning of her service, Pope did not approve of it and took back her sacred clothes and rejected her from the Catholic Church. But later like everyone in this world Pope approved her and now she is declared as a Saint. When I visited her abode, it was a 6' X 8' room on the first floor, with a wooden cot, a wooden chair, a wooden table and a wooden bench for the visitors and the room was not painted but white- washed! “Imperialist and completely for the rich” a remark by a luxurious person of very expensive and affluent life, who helped none including his Church which provided him a launching pad for his triumphant take- off but force landed!

5. Ougen Bava and Konnat Malpan have written something. It is all wrong.

They were people of great integrity and people consider them as Saints. The commentator has got questionable integrity. I know Ougen Bava personally. He was simple, humble and Saintly. While laying the foundation stone for St. Mary's Church at Jalahalli, Bangalore, I was present and recognised his holy and respectable nature. I know his predecessor, Baselios Geevarghese II and witnessed a miracle done by him in 1957. I was astonished while he was praying in my neighbour's house, for healing a lady from madness. In the middle of the prayer he stopped and asked her husband, “Mathews, have you ever dedicated something to God and denied it?" The man replied, "never." I was standing very near to the lady who was standing without covering her head. She immediately picked up some piece of cloth covered her head and asked for her husband to come to her. Then she said, "We have offered our second son to the Lord and promised to dedicate him to be a priest." The Catholicos completed the prayer and asked Mathews to complete the proceedings of dedication before he leaves for Kottayam and it was done accordingly. He was a saint. The priest was Fr. P. M. Koshy, secretary of Catholicos Baselios Mathews II. After Augen Bava, came Baselios Mar Thoma Mathews I. He ruled the Church with an iron sceptre, another bishop without humility. At the end of his reign he was handed over to the devil for chastising with stroke and destruction of the body. His successor Catholicos Mathews II was a regular visitor to my home in Bangalore, simple, humble and saintly Catholicos. Then came Catholicos Didymos, who conducted the marriages of my son and daughter. They were of high integrity, but look at Paulos Gregorios, one year before his demise he confessed partially. However, he was handed over to the devil for physical destruction of the body. I would like to quote another example as well. With due apology to Rev. Fr. T.J. Joshua, may I narrate another incident. Cancer struck him in the form of an illness to his tongue. He prayed God Almighty to heal him if the Lord needs him for his evangelical works. I also prayed God to sit with him on his bed, touch him, encourage him and heal him, not as we desire but according to the will of our merciful God. The Lord was pleased and healed him by granting a new lease of productive life. I was very much delighted to see him in Bangalore as hale and hearty! Glory to God in the highest! What made me to mention these incidents? It is a living example for you and me. Humble yourself or face the same music. Our God is an open book kept in your house. Your yardstick must be the humility of Jesus and nothing less than that! Merciful Lord God! Forgive me for being critical while I am less than nothing.

BAD THEOLOGY

If you study theology from Lucifer, you will feel that what Saint Paul taught is a bad theology. PG says, “For showing the righteousness of God, there is no necessity of the Son to shed the blood. It is a bad theology.”²⁸ First of all we must bear in mind that a righteous God cannot be away from his upright nature even for a moment. Righteousness is one of his characteristics. Why did God not finish off Satan as soon as he rebelled? In that case people like PG can blame God for not showing compassion to Lucifer. In order to secure our salvation, the best way in front of God was to sacrifice his sinless Son for the sinners. Without shedding of blood there is no redemption. Otherwise, how will we work out our salvation? We have seen that PG is against forgiveness. The Bible states that when someone hurts us, we are under an obligation to God to forgive that person. Jesus is very clear on this point (Matthew 6:14-15). For if you forgive other people when they sin against you, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. “If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness” (1 John 1:9). We have seen PG refusing to forgive and to be forgiven.²⁹ His bad theology betrayed him! Without forgiving others and obtaining forgiveness from others how will you work out your salvation?

Now let us consider the question of Justification. If you are not forgiven how can you be justified? A forgiven and justified person is treated by God, as if he has not sinned at all. This is not a bad theology but the teaching of the Holy Bible which he ridiculed. If God has justified can anyone condemn him? If you are not justified how a sinner can be atoned with God? Then how will you work out your salvation?

PG is against atonement. If you are not forgiven, you will be like PG, a disciple of Lucifer. As far as we are concerned, forgiveness, justification and atonement are essential for salvation. If you are not atoned, how will you workout your salvation?

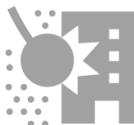

If Jesus does not pay the ransom, how can you be redeemed? PG says it is a bad theology because it is Roman theology. He does not know that the ransom is paid not in silver or gold but by the priceless blood of Jesus Christ. We are not to worry about the statement of a Luciferian. Paul is bringing the example of a slave market to make it clear to us that as soon as you sinned; you became a slave to Lucifer, Satan. Now how to retrieve you from his hands? The only way left is the way Jesus did. He paid the ransom and redeemed you with the Blood of Christ. Therefore, for us, payments of ransom, redemption from the clutches of Satan and blood of Christ is cardinal. If not, how will you work out your salvation?

Another important aspect is the reconciliation. “All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation. Therefore, we are ambassadors for Christ, God making his appeal through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God” (2 Corinthians 5:18-21). “For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, now that we are reconciled, shall we be saved by his life?” (Romans 5:10). ‘Death of his Son’ is the cardinal point of salvation and PG says it is also a bad theology. “And through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether on earth or in heaven, making peace by the blood of his cross. And you, who once were alienated and hostile in mind, doing evil deeds, he has now reconciled in his body of flesh by his death, in order to present you holy and blameless and above reproach before him” (Colossians 1:20-22). PG can never understand this theology because he does not have the discernment. Let us take the advice of St. Paul and throw away PG and his bad theology. “I am astonished that you are so quickly deserting the one who called you to live in the grace of Christ and are turning to a different gospel—which is really no gospel at all. Evidently some people are throwing you into confusion and are trying to pervert the gospel of Christ. But even if we or an angel from heaven should preach a gospel other than the one we preached to you, let them be under God’s curse! As we have already said, so now I say again: If anybody is preaching to you a gospel other than what you accepted, let them be under God’s curse! Am I now trying to win the approval of human beings, or of God? Or am I trying to please people? If I were still trying to please people, I would not be a servant of Christ” (Galatians 1:6-11). Thus PG is under God’s curse! It may be concluded as blasphemy when he called precious teachings of God as “bad theology.”

“WILL” OF PAULOS GREGORIOS ORTHODOX TV

Paulos Gregorios submitted his will to us with the intention of taking us for a ride. He was ‘wise and learned’ while we, the orthodox people remained insensitive and he could take our callousness as granted and dictated what he wanted to the Synod through “his Will.” He has never surrendered his life to the Church or Christ. He did something in the Church but it was all for him and his glory. Finally he decided to take a place along with our beloved Saints and Catholicos in our sacred chapel. Three times our Synod rejected his nomination. After that also he tried and finally, he suggested the bishops of our Synod and they were having no alternative but to concede the wishes of a person who damaged the Church in an irreparable manner. He ridiculed our Holy Bible and taught our beloved priests Blasphemy. Orthodox Seminary Chapel is ours and how dare he included it in his will. He was little less than Almighty and no one dared to question him. He spat on our face and went away to his teacher, the devil leaving his mortal remains to burry in our Sacred Chapel.

May I point out one simple thing? Before he came to the seminary our priests and bishops referred to our God as Yahweh, Lord, Jesus, Karthavu, Daivam, Sarva Shakthan, Swargasthan Aya Pithavu etc. Soon the devil got an opportunity to change it to Iswaran through him. He gave strong suggestions to our bishops and students of seminary and they have replaced our God with Iswaran. Iswaran is not a synonym to our God's name. Paulos Gregorios knows very well that it is the name of Shiva. From my book he also knew that Shiva is a fallen angel. He is the guru of Ashtanga Yoga. Paulos Gregorios advocated Ashtanga Yoga. I will deal with it later. Shiva sits on the North Eastern Mountain of the Earth, the Himalayas. St. Paul refers it as Ishanumoolan in his shipwreck. Ishan is Iswaran, a Hindu God. Our Bishops and priests have adapted it as the first name of their god. It is not our God. He filled the TV with Iswaran left, right and centre. See the damage done by him. This is a punishable offence. I write this in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ! Punishable!

Yet another venom passed on to Christianity by Paulos Gregorios is 'Namo'. I bow before you is the mode of bowing to the evil spirit in the spirit path. It also means, "I honour all the living beings; it include all plants, animals, humans and even the stars and planets which are higher beings or gods. It is forbidden for you according to the first commandment. You are created in the likeness and image of God; therefore superior being, you are not supposed to bow to anyone except our living God. How it started? Rev. Fr. M.P. George is a talented singer. People started praising him even when he was a student. He approached some of the Bishops to help him out for further learning and establishing a Music school. Some of them have supported the idea and when it got fructified; Paulos Gregorios wanted to capitalize it. When a chapter of Shruthi was established in Delhi, people thought that Paulos Gregorios was much better than K. J. Yesudas as far as vocal music is concerned. Have you ever heard him singing liturgical hymns? He cannot attempt to sing even “Kaakke- Kaakke koodevide” (a nursery rhyme) but in his self- made bio- data, he is above Beethoven. M.P. George, the talented musician was reduced to produce and produced to nill with the obnoxious “Namo.” It suits Paulos Gregorios and not for any spiritual person to utter Namo. It is devilish. Listen to Orthodox TV. All these are from the horse’s mouth.

Below are some of the statements from his Will.

1. God is not male.²¹

Paulos Gregorios is an authority of the Church but it is neither in the Holy Bible, nor in the theology. Both are Latin and Greek for him. He is an authority for making errors in all his writings and false claims about himself. He claimed that he was made a eunuch for the kingdom of Heaven as mentioned in Matthew 19:12. The Director of Education department in Ethiopia said, “I do not want to see his face.” I can prove that Paulos Gregorios was a false prophet. He was clever enough “to deceive the very elects.” Communism, Secularism, Freemasonry, WCC, Necromancy and affinity with several false religions have made him not only an atheist but also a devil worshipper. Please refer to his unquotable and Luciferian quotes in this book.

My God is the God of the Holy Bible and HE is male; neither female nor Eunuch as Paulos Gregorios says.

- a) "There you saw how the Lord your God carried you as a father carried you, as a father carries his son; all the way you went until you reached this place" (Deuteronomy 1:31). I can visualise with fear and trembling, My God carrying all the promised Jews on his shoulders from Egypt to the Promised land. Our father is male.
- b) "Is this the way you repay the Lord O foolish and unwise people? Is not your father your creator, who made you and formed you? (Deuteronomy 31:6). Our Creator is male.
- c) Abraham had three visitors; one was God (Genesis 18). God was male.
- d) "I will be his father and he will be my son" (2 Samuel 7:14). Our father is male.
- e) "I will be his father and he will be my son" (1 Chronicles 17:13). Our father is male.
- f) "Today I have become your father" (Psalms 2:7). Christ's Father is male.
- g) "Everlasting Father, Prince of peace" (Isaiah 9:6). Both are male.
- h) "Our Father in heaven" (Matthew 6:9). Jesus said so and the Father is male.
- i) "And by him we cry "Abba" Father" (Romans 8:15). My Abba is male.
- j) "I and the father are one" (John 10:30). We know Jesus worked as a male carpenter and his Heavenly father must be male because they are one.
- k) Through the Holy Bible, we can visualise and experience our Almighty God creating Adam. "Then God said "Let us make man in our image, in our likeness, and let them rule over the fish of the sea and the birds of the air, over the livestock, over all the earth and over all the creatures that move along the ground" (Genesis 1:26). Adam was made in the image and likeness of God. He was 6'6" tall with upright shoulders, square face and male in all respects. Our God is male.

- l) If you fail to recognize, come to the workshop of Joseph; there is a young carpenter of the same stature, our carpenter Jesus. He was an exact replica of Adam and the whole Bible calls him the second Adam. The work that he did in the workshop of Joseph can be done by a fully fledged male only. I used the word visualise. I visualised him as Mary giving bath to the baby Jesus. He was a male baby. I have seen a 12 year old boy speaking better than Scribes or Pharisees in the Synagogue. I have seen a male chasing all males at the same time in the Jerusalem temple with a borrowed whip. I saw a male in Isaiah 53 dying for my sake. Children of the devil succeeded in making a very heavy beam of the cross for Christ which could not be lifted by anyone but a male Jesus and a male Simon of Cyrene. When Jesus blessed the bread and gave to the two disciples at Emmaus they saw their male teacher. When he said “peace unto you” eleven disciples jumped up, they saw their male teacher standing amidst of them. A lion’s share of the people of Galilee witnessed the ascending Jesus as a male. I can visualise much more. My God is male. My creator is male. My Christ is male. My Saviour Jesus is male.

What made Paulos Mar Gregorios to say this lie? The answer is John 8:44. Jesus said, “You belong to your father, the devil, and you want to carry out your father’s desire. He was a murderer from the beginning, not holding to the truth, for there is no truth in him. When he lies, he speaks his native language, for he is a liar and the father of lies.” He thinks that his father the devil is neither a male nor a female. He is right. It is true that the angels are hermaphrodites. According to him, God also is angel. Therefore, he is neither male nor female. Paulose Gregorios is absolutely wrong as usual. Our God is not an angel. He is the creator of angels. He is Almighty God!

2. There is no way we can grasp God.

There is a way and that is Jesus and it is not known to Paulos Gregorios. It is very disgusting to comment on his statements. He makes foolish statements and in the next occasion he denies it. Truly speaking a believer should not say that there is no way. First of all we must know and believe that Jesus is the “way, the truth and the life.” For us, there is no other way.

- a) “By day the Lord went ahead of them in a pillar of cloud to guide them on their way and by night in a pillar of fire to give them light so that they could travel by day or by night” (Exodus 13:21). This is not only for exodus but the presence of god in our life can be experienced even today. That is our only way.
- b) “I will teach you the way that is good” (1 Samuel 12:23).
- c) “As for God his ways are perfect” (2 Samuel 22:31).
- d) “But he knows the way that I take” (Job 23:10).
- e) “His eyes are on the way of men” (Job 34:21). When Paulos Gregorios went as a communist, ‘His’ eyes were on his way. When he became an atheist, ‘His’ eyes were on his way. When he became a freemason, ‘His’ eyes were on his way. When he went 45 times to Russia, not a single trip was for gospel work but for giving deep suggestions to politicians as instructed by the WCC, ‘His’ eyes were on his way. When he practised necromancy for his Reiki, ‘His’ eyes were on his way. When he equated Christ with Tom, Dick and Harry, in his ‘will,’ ‘His’ eyes were on his way. When he became a secularist, ‘His’ eyes were on his way. But he never knew about it because there is no way we can grasp God.

- f) “Commit your way to the Lord; trust in him and he will do this: he will make your righteousness shine like the dawn, the justice of your cause like the noonday sun” (Psalm 37:5-6).
- g) “Teach me your way O Lord” (Psalm 86:11).
- h) “And a highway will be there and it will be called the way of holiness (Isaiah 35:8).

We shall not try to grasp God because he is God and it is not possible for man to comprehend or forcibly retain something from Him. For example, take the case of His glory. Can we ever grasp his glory? Never, like that there are ever so many attributes of God. We shall not try to grasp God. Moreover will anybody try to use the word grasp when we talk of God? Can we seize God? Can we snatch God? Is it not the madness of Paulos Gregorios trying to grasp God? We must be contended with the fellowship of God. “Our fellowship is with the Father” (1 John 1:3). We do not need anything else!

3. God is without form or body.

We can prayerfully comment on anything if the Lord permits but how to comment on such a stupidity? His god is without form or body but our God has a Form and Spiritual body. No one has seen God except His Son. Moses wanted to see God. He asked God: “I pray Thee, show me Thy glory!” (Exodus 33:18) And the Lord said, “I will cause all my goodness to pass in front of you, and I will proclaim my name, the Lord, in your presence. I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom, I will have compassion” (Exodus 33:19). But he said, “you cannot see my face, for no one will see me and live” (v.20). It means God has a body and a face which can be seen. But if you see you will die.

A STUDY CLASS BY THE HOLY SPIRIT

This being the case, it is better for us to learn it from the Holy Spirit. No one knows the answer and you are going to learn it from my theological professor. Be absolutely obedient. Whenever the Holy Spirit wants to teach me something; I do it this way. I beg of you to believe me. I am an old man of over 76 years. You need not give me anything; the Lord has given me everything. You need not even respect me. I am a servant of God, not even an altar boy; but I claim to be in the category of 'dust and ashes' on the sandals of Jesus Christ. I consider this as a great title for me.

Holy Spirit is holy. We are not holy. Present yourself to be as holy as possible. Get up in the morning as early as 5 A.M. spread a clean mat on the ground. Keep the Holy Bible on the mat. Read 1 John 2:27. "As for you, the anointing you have received from him remains in you, and you do not need anyone to teach you. But as his anointing teaches you about all things and that anointing is real, not counterfeit- just as it is taught you, remain in him." Mind you this is the greatest gift I have ever received from God! Observe, three times the personality of the Holy Spirit is projected; three times anointing is emphasised; two times teaching, about all things, making doubly sure it is real and not counterfeit. Now we are in possession of all the theological universities in the world. Visualise your baptism. Visualise the happiness among the angels. Satan is thrown into the Gutter; Jesus is received; Holy Spirit fills; by having the Holy Communion, Jesus abides in you and you are abiding in him. Glory to God in the highest; you are the greatest man in the world; you are an anointed one. Visualise you are sitting in front of my theological professor, the Holy Spirit, reverently. Open Psalm 2, read verse 7. This Son is our Christ. He came to us as the son of Mary and stayed with us for 33 ½ years and sacrificed himself on the cross at Calvary. He died, buried, and resurrected and now sitting on the right side of the Father as Jesus Christ. Now your sins are forgiven; you are redeemed; you are justified by God. You are atoned and adopted to son ship. Now Jesus is standing on your mat. Believe this without an iota of doubt. We are going to learn something new and if you are not willing to obey quit now. If not, surrender completely to God. Visualise God as Jesus Christ and see him standing on your mat. Read verse 12. Fall on his feet and say: when I touch my forehead on your feet and kiss you, I worship you my Lord. Repeat it three times reverently. Feel that you really did it. We obeyed God’s command as regards v.12 is concerned. We worshipped him, we touched him. Now on, “you will not perish on the way.” Say reverently, “Holy, Holy, Holy is the Lord God Almighty who was and is and is to come.” Repeat it 3 x 33 times=99 and once say: “Holy art thou O God, Holy art thou Almighty, Holy art thou Immortal, Crucified for us, have mercy on us!” Fold your mat and keep it away for tomorrow.

Immediately sit on a comfortable position; you are going to commence Bible Study and you are sitting in front of our Theological professor. If required arrange a table lamp. Present yourself with five fold humility. This is absolutely essential. Without humility Holy Spirit will not entertain you!

1. Surrender yourself to God the Father, you are his son.
2. Surrender yourself to our King, you are his subject.
3. Surrender yourself to our master, you are his slave bought from the slave market from your previous master, the devil by paying the entire price in the form of blood of Christ.
4. Surrender yourself to our Saviour- you are a redeemed sinner, you are redeemed by sacrificing the Beloved Son of God the Father.
5. Surrender yourself to our teacher, Jesus- you are his disciple.

Realising this state, Abraham rightly called himself, “dust and ashes.” Are we any better than him? Bend your head a little acknowledging our surrender; we are sitting in front of God.

Pray: “Our Father who art in Heaven, I surrender myself to you completely. I thank you for sending the Holy Spirit to teach me. Teach me, show me and guide me; I submit my prayer in the name of your Son, Jesus Christ Amen!”

You: “Forgive me my Lord for my imprudence, can we see God; does God possess form and body?”

Holy Spirit: “Relax. No. Man cannot see God. God is Spirit. God is invisible. God is Glorious. There are three reasons why man cannot see God.”

1. God is Holy. God alone is Holy and no one can approach that Holiness.
2. God is Glory. This glory is of the order of several trillion mega watts of power of light. Light is associated with heat and man cannot comprehend that light or heat as “it is consuming fire.”
3. Man possesses a sinful body. God hates sin. Therefore, man with a body cannot approach God.

God has a spiritual form and God has a spiritual body. He can present himself with full glory, reduced glory without glory and minus glory at will. He can also possess or dispossess his body at will. He can present himself spiritually or bodily. Mind you; he is God Almighty. Anything and everything is possible by him.

AS REGARDS FORM AND BODY IS CONCERNED:

1. First Adam was an exact replica of God.

In the Garden of Eden, God created Adam in his exact likeness and exact image, including Glory. Both of them possessed full Glory! Adam was not an ordinary man. He was son of God (Luke 3:38). He was sinless. Adam was with physical body but God was with Spiritual body. They used to meet every day in the evening. The relation was as Father and his children. While God possessed Heavenly Glory, Adam possessed Earthly Glory. Angels could not distinguish Adam from God due to the same Glory and all except Lucifer fell and worshiped Adam. Mind you, he was sinless and exactly like God. He named all creatures; when angels tried, they could not do that. God asked him, what is your name? Adam replied immediately, I am Adam. God further asked him what you mean by Adam. He immediately replied: the one who is made out of Adama which means mud. God was very pleased and asked him, what is the name of your wife? Immediately he replied, Havvah. God again asked, what do you mean by that? He replied immediately: Mother of all. Then God asked him, do you know my name? Adam replied, Adonai. God was surprised and asked him, what does it mean? He replied immediately: Creator of all. When Adam committed sin, he lost his glory and became naked, fell prey to death. After the fall, Adam never saw God! Previously, he was an eternal man clothed with Glory, image and likeness of God. Sin separated man and God. In the second coming of Jesus his glory will be restored!

People were shown God’s physical body several times with Glory and without Glory. Let us examine four more such instances as mentioned in the Holy Bible. Abraham saw with reduced Glory, Jacob saw with minus Glory, Moses saw with glory and all people saw Immanuel, (God with us) with emptied glory.

2. Abraham Saw God.

He was an ordinary man but very rich. He committed sins as he possessed a sinful body. Sinful people cannot comprehend the Glory of God. God loves sinner and hates sin. He wanted fellowship with man. God is free to manifest Himself in any locality, in apparent human appearance, and in less- than- plenary form, if He so chooses. So he appeared to man in human form with reduced glory. No theologian will say like this. He will immediately borrow a word from Greek, “theophany,” means theos = God and phaino = shine. Actually there is no need for borrowing another word from another language to exhibit the knowledge of the author. All the same God presented himself several times to man for his fellowship. God loved Abraham and said, “He is my friend.” God appeared to Abraham and said “to your offspring I will give this land” (Genesis 12:7). Read verses 8 and 9. The Lord frequently appeared to Abraham, visibly but not in his glory. See John 1:18. “No one has seen God, but God the one and only Son who is at the Father’s side, has made him known.” What does it mean? Those who saw God, saw him in a form and body, visible to them, he took on himself temporarily for the occasion. Now however, Christ has made him known. Abraham is a sinner. God cannot appear to him in his Glory. So God appeared to him in reduced Glory. At that time he was 75 years old and sitting in Haran, Mesopotamia. When God appeared to him, he obeyed God and set out to an unknown place with his brother’s son Lot. He travelled even up to Egypt. He became very rich. Later, Abraham came back. He got settled in Mamre. Read Genesis 18:1-33. One day he was visited by three men. He was sitting in front of his tent. It was a hot summer day. When he saw them, he ran to them and fell to the ground and invited them to his tent in a befitting manner. They accepted the invitation. Abraham washed their feet; his wife Sarah prepared bread and meat for them. Abraham served them while Sarah was hiding all the while. She could not comprehend even the reduced Glory of God. Note how she tells lie to God. They ate and drank what Abraham served them. They relaxed and two angels went their way to Sodom. Observe Abraham was keeping a good distance from God! Then God said I will not keep any secret from you; these men have gone to Sodom because I received outcry about that city. They are sinners. I am going to destroy it. Then Abraham fearfully went closer to God and pleaded for Sodom and the Lord God listened very patiently to Abraham. They had relation of a Father and an obedient son. “When the Lord had finished speaking with Abraham, he left, and Abraham returned home” (verse 33). See Abraham identified God by his ‘form’ among the three men. He welcomed them by prostrating; a Jew will do it only to his God. He washed their feet of their ‘body.’ He served them as intimately as a host. Spoke with God standing close to him in human language that you can understand. Abraham pleaded for Sodom and God agreed to yield six times. God meeting man with reduced Glory!

If you do not want to continue break the session reverently or continue the same lesson.

3. Jacob Wrestled with God.

Abraham saw God with reduced glory. He could stand near him and serve the food. But that reduced Glory of God was not bearable to Sarah; she hid herself throughout the meeting and did not come out from the tent at all. Now we will have another incident of God presenting himself as a weak person, with further reduced Glory or minus Glory.

Jacob was a young man who cheated his father Isaac, his brother Esau and his uncle Laban. At the middle of the night he decided to leave Laban's place with his two wives, two maids and eleven children. Eldest son Reuben is hardly 22 years and no other help because if he is arranging workers, Laban will immediately spoil the trip. God helped Jacob in all respects while he was with Laban. He was having a huge stock of sheep, goat, camel and donkeys. Another mortal fear he had was his brother Esau who had become a big man now. God wanted him to face all the hurdles. Now God wanted to strengthen him and give him an impression that he is greater than the greatest God. When he had shifted all his belonging to the other side of the river Yapok, God appeared without glory or minus glory and got defeated by Jacob! This was also with the intention to confer him with the title "Israel"

Read Genesis 32:22-33. "So Jacob was left alone, and a man wrestled with him till day break. When the man saw that he could not overpower him, he touched the socket of Jacob's hip, so that his hip was wrenched as he wrestled with the man. Then the man said, 'let me go for it is day break.' But Jacob replied "I will not let you go unless you bless me,' The man asked, 'what is your name?' 'Jacob,' he answered. Then the man said, 'Your name no longer will be Jacob, but Israel because you have struggled with God and with men and have overcome.' Jacob said, 'Please tell me your name.' But he replied, 'why do you ask my name?' Then he blessed him there. " So Jacob called that place Peniel, saying "It is because I saw God face to face and yet my life was spared." Peniel means face of God! Here God is with form and body.

(This reminds me of my Eldest son Sam, when he was 4 years old, after applying oil on his body for bathing, used to challenge me for wrestling! Now he is the Commander of Boeing 777. I used to pretend that I am scared of him in wrestling. He won all the rounds!

Jacob's struggle was a similar fight. Merciful God accepted defeat in front of his child!)

Jacob acknowledged the presence of God. He is asking God for blessing him. Jacob had overcome God in wrestling. Read v.27-32. God blessed him. God conferred the title “Israel” to Jacob. Jacob acknowledged that he has seen God face to face and yet he did not die. God dealt with Jacob ‘sans Glory’. Further, to make it realistic, Jacob is limping. Now you tell me whether God presented himself to Jacob with form and body? Glory to God in the highest; thank god for this revelation.

4. Moses Saw the Glory of God under controlled condition.

We are going to see God. Present yourself in a befitting manner. We can see God to the extent what he reveals to us. In his full Glory, we cannot see the face of God!

Read Exodus 33:20. “You cannot see my face, for no one may see me and live.” Glory to God in the highest! Remember, you must possess humility. God reveals him to his son, his subject, his redeemed one, his slave and his disciple. You are going to see Glory of God. You cannot see the face of God because he is holy and you are a wicked sinner, with a sinful body; you will be burnt to ashes, as our God is consuming fire. Read Hebrews 12:29. He has a body and that has a face. As soon as we die, we can see him as he is. Read Exodus 33:18. Moses asked an unfair demand. “Now show me your glory?” God loved Moses and decided to oblige. Read verses 21-23. “Then the Lord said “there is a place near me where you may stand on a rock. When my Glory pass by, I will put you in a cleft, in the rock and cover you with my hand until I have passed by. Then I will remove my hand and you will see my back; but my face must not be seen.

Glory to God in the highest! Could you visualise the physical hand of God that close the cleft. I could see Moses being covered by the hand of God. Yes, I could see because God always do what he says. God passed by and removed his hand from the cleft. Moses saw physically the back side of God. Moses is warned, "My face must not be seen." Glory to God in the highest! God has a physical hand; God has a physical back; God has a physical face which we did not see but he said so and we believe. It is evident God has legs with which he moved from the cleft but I dare not comment as it is not mentioned in the Holy Bible. Thank you precious God; you are my God. We heard him speak in human language to Moses and we understood it without an iota of doubt.

Read Exodus 34:5-7. Proclamation of our God in our language: "Then the Lord came down in the cloud and stood there with him and proclaimed his name the Lord. And he passed in front of Moses, proclaiming, "The Lord, the Lord the compassionate and glorious God, slow to anger, bounding in love and faithfulness, maintaining love to thousands and forgiving wickedness, rebellion and sin. Yet he does not leave the guilty unpunished; he punishes the children and their children for the sin of the fathers to the third and fourth generation. Moses bowed to the ground at once and worshiped." God is with form and body; that too glorious body. Moses saw God physically, along with him, we also could visualise God. Glory to God in the Highest; thank God for this magnificent revelation and thank Holy Spirit for the precious lessons! Pray and close for another sitting.

5. Immanuel or God with us!

Read Matthew 1:23. "The virgin will be with child and will give birth to a son, and they will call him 'Immanuel' which means, "God with us." Read Isaiah 7:14. Seven hundred years before the birth of “God with us” Israel was revealed the birth of Immanuel. No Jew ever bothered to identify their promised Messiah. Look at the lamentation of another Jew, our Paul: “In the past God spoke to our forefathers through the prophets at many times and in various ways, but in these last days he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, and through whom he made the universe” (Hebrews 1:1-2). See the capital ‘S’ of Son. He is one among the Trinity and God himself. Mary saw him; Joseph saw him, angels declared him as “Saviour, Christ, and the Lord.” Shepherds saw him, and the wise men certified the glorious star and worshiped him with gold, incense and myrrh. Simon and Hanna certified him to be the promised messiah. All have seen this God; was he without form and body? God forbid, you are taught by the Devil. He emptied his Glory and came to you as a man!

“The Son is the radiance of God’s glory and the exact representation of his being, sustaining all things by his powerful word. After he had provided purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the majesty in heaven” (Hebrews 1:3-4). Carefully watch his speciality:

- a) Appointed heir of all things. The incarnate Son, having performed the work of redemption, was gloriously exalted to the position of the firstborn heir of God. He received the inheritance of God’s estate. God with form and body.
- b) Through him he made the universe (John 1:3; Colossians 1:16). God with form and body.
- c) Radiance of God’s Glory. The second person of the Trinity, he himself is God. God with form and body.
- d) The exact representation of his being. Jesus is not merely an image or reflection of God because the Son himself is God. He is the absolutely authentic representation of God’s being (John 14:9; Colossians 1:15). God with form and body.

- e) Sustaining all things. The Son dynamically holds together all that has been created through him (Colossians 1:17). God with form and body.
- f) Provided purification for sins. Through his redeeming death on the cross. Can it be done without form and body?
- g) Sat down on the right hand of the majesty in heaven. Being seated at God's right hand indicates that the work of redemption is complete and that Christ is actively ruling with God as Lord over all. See the declaration of the Father God, "Your throne, O God will last forever and ever" Hebrews 1:8). Sat down on the right hand of the mercy is with form and Body.

Anyone who has seen me has seen the Father (John 14:9), God with form and body.

I am in the Father and the Father is in me (John 14:11), God with form and body.

CHAPTER 8

“WISE AND LEARNED” AS A FOOL

a) “Christ is for me a teacher of humanity, along with Gautama Budha, Vardhamana Mahavira, Loa Tse, Mahatma Gandhi, Mohammed, Adi Shannkara, Plato, Socrates, Moses, and Zoraster.” ‘Will’ of PG.

This is an effort to belittle Christ and sell our Glorious Christ along with Tom, Dick and Harry. What made him to make such a statement? There can be three reasons:

- a) He did not know anything about Christ.
- b) He has no fear of God.
- c) He thought the entire readers will take his statements are indisputable.

LET US EXAMINE THESE REASONS

- a) He did not know anything about Christ. As regards time is concerned, when Christ existed Jesus was not. When Jesus existed, Christ was very much there. He is wise and the learned; therefore everything is hidden for him. He did not know anything about Christ.
- b) The author, Paulos Gregorios, is not a fool to make such a statement. On the contrary, he was a very intelligent man. But he did not fear God because his god and our God were different. He sold his soul and spirit to Satan. He fears the All Seeing Eye, who instructs him. Why should he fear other God?
- c) Through the nefarious WCC he became a towering personality. Therefore, his contention is true that the readers will consider him as indisputable. He ridiculed the Holy Bible! Did anyone dispute his foolish statements? It is evident and his partial confession at the age of 73 reveals that. Added to that, we saw, his scant respect for the Holy Bible and his cheap scoffing of the errors in God's creation of the world. His association with the Freemasons of the Scottish Rites enabled him to deal with "The All Seeing Eye" dropped him to such a low level that he cannot claim to be a Christian. Philanthropic activity of the WCC is nothing but a mask to cover the Devil. He had a wretched life in WCC. "The freedom" which he is talking about is nothing but alienation from God. This is exactly what Lucifer, the All Seeing Eye also wanted. His pride chucked him out from several dignitaries, according to him, even Pope John Paul II. He was a Freemason and an expert in mind control and PG tried to suggest Pope to have interest in the books about Shankara and Ramanujam, while the Pope emphasised the need for studying the great books of Thomas Aquinas. The intention of Pope was to show PG that he should be more obedient to God. He should learn humility. As he was not yielding to Pope his security showed him the door. In the Christian Community not a single soul suspected him and he had got a number of followers, through the Theological Seminary. These were his calculated move for the Devil. Let us hope any one of his followers will defend his knowledge about Christ. If the statement is about Jesus, we have nothing to say; he was a teacher also.

This is about Christ. Where did he see Christ as a teacher? Did he ever know that Christ is Invisible? Did he ever see any invisible teachers other than his teacher Lucifer? Did he ever know Christ is God and he is not a man as he compared him with Tom Dick and Harry? Did he know who 'Mighty God' is? Did he know who is Everlasting Father? Did he know that Christ possess a divine body. Did he ever know the definition of Christ? I would like to start with the definition of Christ. Beforehand may I state that this subject is not to be handled by "a dust and ashes" like me. I take refuge in the Holy Spirit fearfully and reverentially!

The Holy Bible defines Christ as the "wisdom" of God and the "power" of God. In order to know the Magnitude of Christ, you remove the Wisdom and Power from God. What is left? Until the age of 65, I could not get it. Then Holy Spirit taught me through my beloved teacher, Saint Paul. "Jews demand miraculous signs and Greeks look for wisdom, but we preach Christ crucified: a stumbling block to Jews and foolishness to Gentiles, but to whom God has called both Jews and Greeks, Christ the "power" of God and the "wisdom" of God. For the foolishness of God is wiser than man's wisdom, and the weakness of God is stronger than man's strength" (1 Corinthians 1:22-25). Please note, "but to whom God has called" PG is not called by God. Which Communist was called by God? Christ was stumbling block to PG. Christ was foolishness to PG. We were simply duty bound to lift his chair and shout, Yogyan, Yogyan, Yogyan (worthy, worthy and worthy) while he was an ayogyan (unworthy) and he became a Bishop of the Church to head the WCC, the decisive position he longed for. Three times the managing committee of the Synod categorically rejected his nomination because he was a communist, who worked against Evangelists in China and other countries. Forty five times he visited Russia. Third time his rejection was in his presence. That time he admitted that he is unfit to be a bishop of the Church. He employed his priests and bishops and entered through the back door, as Red Bishop. Once entered, he applied suggestions to the Catholicos periodically and took them for a ride. From all over the world he used to call them for their birthday and a VIP of that State or Church will wish them. They are thrilled and next item of the programme will be his suggestion to be appointed as the Principal of Theological Seminary. The story of the “Rhyme of the Ancient Mariner” repeated. Samuel Tailor Coleridge explains the predicament situation of the wedding guest. Most appropriate time also he could not enter the Wedding Hall; he is dead while alive; such was the mind controlling power of the Ancient Mariner. Here the state of Catholicos will be worse than that. He ploughed the Church four fold, left, right and centre. When he left the wedding guest, the Church, was run down; dead while alive. So many establishments are in his name, symposium, seminar, meetings, and conferences and conventions after him, music school after his name, all his rotten books of blasphemy is prescribed for the Theological Seminary. Paurasthya Christava Darshanam is an example. It is an absolute blasphemy. Please read the ‘unquotable quote’ to see a liar, Freemason, communist, atheist, necromancer, next Prime Minister of India¹², Hasiyo deelan, Gregory of India, what and what not! He did belittle our Christ by his calculated move. Glorious Christ and ‘emptied’ Jesus are one and the same for him. Our God is compared with ordinary humans! As he stated he “bluffed” all of us.

b) The hope keeps me from despair and despondency even when everything looks so bleak and gloomy in God's world. 'Will' of Paulos Gregorios.

Paulos Gregorios earned several nick names including 'Bishop sans Humility' and 'Red Bishop' are classic. If you claim to be a Christian and fail to adapt the humility of our Lord Jesus Christ, you are going to face a miserable life. If you claim to be a Christian and a Communist it will never go together. At the age of 76 he writes about his hope. If you cheat God what hope can you have? Christopher Marlowe shows us the same state of mind of a person in his 'Dr. Faustus.' Dr. Faustus sold his soul to Satan. At the end he repents but the devil comes in the form of Mephistopheles and takes away his soul and spirit at the twelfth hour. PG knows that he sold his spirit to Satan. a) When he became an atheist. b) When he worked for Communism. c) When he joined the lodge of freemason. d) When he practised Reiki by calling the spirit of a dead Japanese fellow by name Mock chi Okado. e) When he had a pact with the devil to appear as and when required and do what he wants after his death. f) When he was advocating for truth and love, he spoke innumerable lies. When he had a stroke, all his hope went away. When he had an attack of cancer, what ever residual hope remained also went away. He died as a hopeless bluff master and he remarks, "God's world is bleak and gloomy!"

He says that he was subjected to despair. Yes he asked for a state of misery by cheating all and sundry. He was in a state of desolation because no friend of his was contacting him because he was bigger than the biggest. He was in a state of hopelessness because he betrayed everyone. He was in a state of dejection because he admitted once he never had a happy moment in his life.

He says he was under utter despondency. This is a state befell on him. At the beginning of the marriageable age he was compelled to leave India because of the Communist people. Because of his intelligence and hard work he became a primary school teacher, a high school teacher and a staff in the Emperor's office. After his graduation PG came to India and went behind the Church to become a Bishop, to fulfil his ultimate aim of heading the WCC. He became a priest. After some time when Hailey Sellasee visited Calcutta, he asked PG to join him. Later he proposed his niece to him. He was already a priest by then and added to that he had already victimized Fr. V. C. Samuel for getting married after his ordination as a priest and stopped his scholarship of Yale University. PG was altogether sad about it through out his life. He was cheerless for rest of his life. In his reminiscence he used to regret his deeds and this led him to a great deal of grief. He was very sorrowful because he knew his double standards and his so many denials! It pained him to move with small children because it reminded him of his wretched life.

Under these circumstances, his life was miserable, drab, dreary, depressing and desolate; so everything looked so bleak and gloomy in his world, not God's world. As he went away from the Light, his life was dark, dull and murky. Yet, see the crookedness he dares to call God's world as bleak and gloomy! Our God's world is never bleak and gloomy; on the other hand it is righteousness, peace and joy.

CHAPTER 9

INTEGRITY OF PAULOS GREGORIOS

AS A BISHOP

We have seen Paulos Gregorios as a bright exponent of sacred traditions; Ecumenical leader devoted to interfaith dialogue and cooperation; President of the World Council of Churches; scholar, philosopher, author, educationist, linguist, public speaker, socio-political thinker; advocate of women's equality, environmental integrity and holistic health; crusader against exploitation, neo- colonialism and religious- cultural arrogance; activist for disarmament, justice and peace, what and what not. He has earned name and fame as a Bishop because, all said and done. Orthodox Church is one of the oldest traditional Churches in the world. It was established by St. Thomas, the disciple of Jesus Christ. Although we did not have any eminent leaders, it survived and maintained its unflinching faith and sacred worship until the foreign invasion and Antioch, a group of wicked sinners and for their unlawful greed and superiority. Even then with great difficulty, we maintained it to a certain extent, the absolute faith and sacred worship as established by St. Thomas. That became a saleable commodity in the other denominations and the international circles. Paulos Gregorios was able to capitalise this in various forms not only in WCC but also in other international forms. It was appealing to all denominations as he was the president of the WCC and the principal of a Prestigious, Traditional Theological Seminary. So far so good; but his integrity became questionable, when he wrote several books against the “Holy Bible”, made derogatory statements against Christ and against Ougen Bava. Even the Synod could not dare to check him. He survived the rejection of the Synod three times and entered through the back door, through his trick. His integrity must be questioned when he powerfully suggested to our seminary students and other persons like John D. Kunnath, who wrote in his book titled, ‘In His Masters Path’ “Paulos Gregorios is the second coming of Jesus.” Will you ever believe it? That is the power of his mental suggestions. He admits that he is a product of the thought of Paulos Gregorios. Has he not fallen from the grace of God?

Jesus said, “But in those days, following that distress the sun will be darkened, and moon will not give its light; the stars will fall from the sky, and the heavenly bodies will be shaken. At that time men will see the Son of Man coming in clouds with great power and glory. And he will send his angels and gather his elect from the four winds from the ends of the earth to the ends of the heavens” (Mark 13:24-27). Did any one experience this when PG came and PG gone?

When he prescribed his rotten theology to our seminary students, have they not fallen from the grace of God? When he suggested them, they became his slaves and acted accordingly to his beck and call. His integrity became questionable when he imposed his dubious “Will” upon us. No one can appropriate other person’s property through his will. Church has become a “wedding guest” in front of the “Ancient Mariner”, motionless and speechless! His body is buried with our Saints where there is Morning Prayer, evening prayer, periodical remembrances prayers, monthly, yearly and for him alone, ten yearly also. See the success of a disciple of Satan. If you have discernment you will follow this, if not I will become an aggressor. Is there any other “Red Bishop” or “Bishop sans humility” resting there? Yes he has a questionable integrity as remarked by the famous journalist, T.V.R. Shenoy, “Let it be said that the Bishop possessed a truly fine intellect. But if his brilliance was unchallenged, his integrity was a little more suspect.” Paulose Mar Gregorios, Alienation from God.

Church is spending a lion share of its income for mission work. The people are contributing a large amount on Mission Sunday willingly. The success in various fields of Mission is known to one and all not only in India but the whole world. But look at the attitude of Paulos Gregorios, “The mission of the church is the greatest enemy of the gospel.” If such a person is the Principal of a Theological Seminary, what will be the outcome from the students? He begged for that post when he was blacklisted from nomination by the synod. When he became a bishop he said, “I never wanted to become a bishop,” imagine his integrity! Church gave greatest importance to worship particularly to our Holy Eucharist. If there is any possibility, no person will abstain from the Sunday Holy Eucharist. Spiritual fathers like Paulos Gregorios say it is secret. Eucharist is great because it is a sacrament. True, it is a great sacrament. There is no secrecy in worship as it is an expression of, divine fear, respect, regards, affection and love of children to their father in heaven. Is there any place for secrecy there? No. He is coming to his Creator with his best offering. He has come to tell his father, "O God, (mine) is a broken spirit; a broken and contrite heart you, God, will not despise." Yes God will say, "I will never despise!" Where will you insert secrecy in this? Brahmin Poojari betrayed us. He said there is secrecy in Mantra. Yes it is true. If you want to invoke a fallen angel like Bhrama, Vishunu or Maheshwara, utter evil mantras, they can be invoked. But our God is not a fallen angel. He is God Almighty, he is our Father. By spell or mantra if I invoke god, I am greater than that god. It does not apply to our God. Be absolutely plain with him. Here the greatest thing in Eucharist is some thing else. (a) It is a commandment of Jesus, our Saviour. On the day of Last Supper, our Lord explained the significance of it. He ordered us to conduct it as and when we meet together for communion or fellowship. (2) It is the most sacred offering to our God. The acceptance of this offering is conditional.

Abel gave his offering. Kept it on a rock, and said, my father Adam, forgive me; my mother Eve, forgive me; my brother Cain and all my sisters please forgive me any trespasses if ever I have done. He got a satisfactory answer. Then he came to the rock, presented it to God with all humility, with broken and contrite heart to the Lord God for the forgiveness of his sins. Father God accepted it. He was pleased, smiled and blessed him!

Now let us take the case of Paulos Gregorios. He is standing as high priest. We all have come with our offerings. Instead of obtaining forgiveness from men and God he says, "The hardest thing for me is to forgive myself, and to accept the grace of forgiveness. I fear that I will lose my independence if I accept forgiveness, for to acknowledge forgiveness is to recognize a permanent obligation to the forgiver. I would much rather be punished than forgiven; for if I am punished, then I have no further obligation to the one against whom I have sinned.” With this Luciferian attitude will the Lord accept our conditional offering? His integrity is to Satan not to the Church. We were just watching a drama conducted by Paulos Gregorios and his god and teacher, the devil. Did he not desecrate our magnificent Holy Eucharist? You never knew about it because you have no discernment. God accepts sacrifices from the hands of the humble, penitent, sinner and never from the hands of the ‘creator’ without any integrity like Paulos Gregorios.

“Freedom is something given to man so that, while being part of creation, he can himself become a creator and alter the shape, the direction and the meaning of creation” (PG). This proves beyond doubt that his integrity is to Lucifer.

AS A COMMUNIST

From the age 15, PG was forced to fend for himself. He got a job as a clerk in a transport company, a den of staunch communist people. As a freelance writer, he started writing for them. He was a voracious reader, particularly Karl Marx. He considered himself to be a victim of the uneven distribution of wealth by God. That is how their relation is estranged. That is the reason he called God a ‘dictator’ and ‘Caesar.’ He distanced himself from the Church due to the admiration of T.V. Thomas, who married a Hindu lady, K.R. Gouri, in the communist office. During this period he started advocating for Marx saying, “Religion is the opium of the people.” “Banish gods from the skies and capitalists from the Earth and make the World safe for industrial communism.” His work was against God and the missionary workers; that is the reason why he said, time and again, that Mission is imperialism and he is against it. As time passed, he could spread communism in the Post and Telegraph Department also. A time came; he left India and started working underground from Africa. He remained a communist till his end and earned the nickname, 'Red Bishop.' However, his integrity became questionable when he joined hands with Indira Gandhi, during the Emergency declared in India. Communist people were astonished at his erratic behaviour. Here he proved his integrity!

At times he made statements like, "I found anti- communism anti- Christian, and therefore, decided to associate and work with the communists. Again his integrity became questionable, towards the end; however, he confessed that they too became, "dogmatic, corrupt, and power hungry" as anyone else. Where is his integrity?

"He was proud of his communism in India but, on the international stage, he stood shoulder to shoulder with the liberation forces and the socialist camp along with two other famous Malayalis, M.M. Thomas and Bishop Paulose Mar Paulose of the Chaldean Church." P. Govinda Pillai, 'Mar Gregoriosinte Mathavum Marksavum.'²⁷ It can be noticed that he had a double standard in every field. In his book Govinda Pillai is praising him thinking that he was a great theologian; he never knew that in theology he was close to zero, while he was great in philosophy.

The fallacy of communism and the way PG cheated the Church can be well explained by the following quotation of Martin Luther King Jr.:

"Communism based on a materialistic and humanistic view of life and history. According to Communist theory, matter, not mind or spirit, speaks the last word in the universe. Such a philosophy is avowedly secularistic and atheistic. Under it, God is merely a figment of the imagination, religion is a product of fear and ignorance, and the church is an invention of the rulers to control the masses. Moreover, Communism, like humanism, thrives on the grand illusion that man, unaided by any divine power, can save himself and usher in a new society—

I fight alone, and win or sink,

I need no one to make me free; I want no Jesus Christ to think,
That He could ever die for me.

Cold atheism wrapped in the garments of materialism, Communism provides no place for God or Christ" Martin Luther King Jr.

God save the Church from the hands of Paulos Gregorios.
Laugh not because he is dead. Read the article, 'A Human Wonder.'

AS A PRESIDENT OF WORLD COUNCIL OF CHURCHES

In my knowledge and belief, WCC is a devil worshipping organisation. I have noticed many persons entered thinking that it is the international Christian organisation. They entered thinking that there is evangelisation. It was a foreign word in WCC. They expected several debates, conversions and spreading of the gospel for the glory of God. On the other hand it was a place of excellent meat, fish, vodka and whisky with dialogues, seminars, symposium and international meetings for amalgamating all religion for "One World Religion." Most of the persons present are Freemasons. There is an 'all seeing eye' on the American dollar; he is the VIP of this organisation. So many gems entered and returned as charcoal.

A few years back, a renowned journalist of Bangalore, P.N. Benjamin, a good friend of mine, invited me for a meeting of WCC at St. Mark's Cathedral, Bangalore. The VIP in the meeting was the secretary of WCC. After his speech, mike was passed on for comments. When it came to me, I was prompted by the Holy Spirit to keep my mouth shut and talk privately with the Secretary, WCC. P.N. Benjamin arranged the meeting with him. I introduced myself as a friend of three dignitaries of WCC. Rev. Fr. Dr. V.C. Samuel, ex- secretary WCC, Rev. Fr. Dr. K.C. Joseph, ex- secretary of WCC and Bishop Paulos Gregorios, President of WCC. He was delighted to converse with me. I asked him a few questions: 1) Have you noticed, the commencing prayer did not have the word Jesus. He said yes, you have a point. 2) You had great meetings but could you attract any one person to Christianity? He replied: No, but we have helped many Churches. 3). You had great dialogues with inter religion; had several debates, published several articles; could you attract a single person to Christ? He replied: No, but we are in the process. 4) Could you enrol a single person as disciple of Jesus? If you say no, your organization is a non- starter, even after 60 valuable years. He said: you have a point and I will put forward your views and questions to the next meeting. I thanked him for his patience and said that so long as you desist from using the word Jesus, you are likely to make no progress! This is an inner view of WCC. What credit would you give to the World Council of Churches? That is why I used the term enter as Diamond and exit as Charcoal!

It should be further noted that, while the original goal of the ecumenical movement and the WCC was “the unity of the churches”, the new vision of the WCC is for the unity of all religions and, in fact, all mankind. It should be clear to all who have been watching the WCC that it has become a modern Tower of Babel.

Those who claim that the WCC is becoming more “evangelical” are either blind or naive. Evangelicals who remain in the WCC are being used as window dressing to hide the WCC apostasy, there is only dialogue not witnessing.

Having substituted the building of a new society in place of the preaching of the gospel of salvation by grace through faith in Jesus Christ, it is not surprising that the WCC should forsake “witness” for “dialogue” even while claiming that dialogue is a form of witnessing. In recent years, the WCC has been engaged in official dialogues with almost everyone; Roman Catholics, Jews, Muslims, Buddhists, Hindus, Humanists, Traditional African Religions and Communists. As previously noted, the original goal of “Christian unity” has been superseded with the goal of the “unity of all mankind.” They say, “Opportunities and occasions for dialogue cannot and must not be confined to men of religious faiths but also must involve men of secular ideologies.” This is the greatest contribution of Paulos Gregorios. Ask your conscience, “Is it Biblical?” Apostle Paul says in 2 Corinthians 6:16, “What agreement is there between the temple of God and idols? For we are the temple of the living God; as God has said I will be with them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they will be my people. Therefore come out from there and be separate, says the Lord.”

The WCC says, “Be open, be vulnerable, and take a risk.” The Word of God says, “Beware!” “Beware of false prophets which come to you in sheep’s clothing but inwardly they are ravening wolves” (Matthew 7:15). Will you follow Christ or Paulos Gregorios? He succeeded in suggesting everyone in WCC to tune them to “One World Religion.” This is the reason WCC disowned him. He could make believe the Church that he is doing a wonderful job in WCC while they were trying to get rid of him but the ‘Orthodox’ tag helped him to continue there.

It was stated that they were seeking “to sensitize churches, inviting them to lobby with their governments as well as to mark the 30th Anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights.” The WCC issued a special document promoting the UN sponsored International Year of the Child, totally ignoring the fact that even though this appeal is made with the image of starving children in mind, the real thrust of this program is toward socialization of the child and the family. Individual believers and churches that are opposed to the philosophy and program of the UN should realize that it is not their voice which is heard in places of power and decision - it is the voice of the false prophets in the WCC that prevail and speak for you whether you like it or not. Paulos Gregorios received U N Award for this feat. Our people did not know he was encashing us!

As the years have slipped by with little progress toward the goal of “one visible church”, their frustrations have been manifested in the use of clever language to hide their failures. Instead of “One Church” we hear talk of “councillor fellowship” and “unity in reconciled diversity” and trying to “relate the right kind of diversity to the right kind of unity.” Through the years, they have followed the old ecumenical motto, “Service Unites, Doctrine Divides.” But in spite of their wish to ignore doctrine, the issue continues to re- appear. At times, WCC leaders introduce new word games or “theological breakthroughs” which they announce with a great fanfare, seeking to revive the hopes of their disillusioned followers. Although there is enough and more subtlety, the projection of “One World Religion” of Paulos Gregorios can be seen evidently in WCC. He sold not only his excellent vocabulary, and English gymnastics but also his soul and spirit to the ‘All Seeing Eye’!

I have yet another point to be revealed. WCC is Paul Varghese and Paul Varghese is WCC. He became great through WCC and poor Church. Fine, all of you may be under the impression that World Council of Churches is a great organization of Christians. It is not true. Before Paulos Gregorios, I had two good friends in WCC. One was Rev. Dr. V.C. Samuel and other was Rev. Dr. K.C. Joseph. I used to interact with them as I knew these people very personally. These two were gems. Both of them were secretaries of WCC. That is an organisation of the highest order controlled by very rich nations and illuminate. Very huge amounts of the order of billions come there from rich nations. So far they could not do anything for any church. The top person controlling the WCC is “All seeing eye” Satan. You do not believe it. You are considering that is God. You will not work to find out the truth because you do not have discernment. It is a gift of the Holy Spirit. Please believe me Satan is the all Seeing Eye. So it is never for Christ. These three diamonds entered WCC and the third person PG came out as charcoal.

Fr. K.C. Joseph, a renowned English professor, entered WCC. Removed his beard being a priest, he became a laughing stock and they made him a disgrace. Fr. V.C. Samuel entered, got married after his ordination as a priest, they ridiculed him, his wife met with an accident and died while he was driving. These two persons kept one arm distance, while serving WCC. So they saved themselves! Then came, Paulos Gregorios who claimed WCC is his own. His Reiki, Necromancy, Freemasonry, Illuminati and association with Eswaran, Namo etc. made him a charcoal of confusion, confounded situation. But he thought he could trick everyone. He succeeded till the Vancouver meeting. What a disgrace?

PG was the secretary of WCC several times. Then he became the President of the organisation. In that organization nobody trusted him because he proved many a time that his integrity is questionable. Therefore, “In 1983 the Vancouver Assembly had chosen me to be one of its presidents, a desperate move on the part of the WCC establishment to keep me out of power in its policy making and running. A president of the WCC is always a decorative figure, supposed to represent the WCC on unimportant public occasions, a senior figure who generally keeps out of all controversy. I was the only legitimate candidate to be moderator of the Central Committee, since no one from the tradition had been allowed to be general secretary or moderator up till that time, and only the general secretary's post is more powerful than that of the moderator." Wherever he went, he was not working for the organization. So the place that he was boasting off has become a trap for him. Always Satan betrays his disciple at the most crucial times.

"I was elected a President in 1983, and I insisted that I should give a series of lectures to the staff in Geneva about these errors. Influential members of the staff, of course, resisted the proposal with all their strength." By that time people knew that he was a wrong number, and working for Satan, therefore they resisted.

"I served as president until the Canberra Assembly in 1991³⁰, but I was systematically kept out of all important decision making, and was seldom allowed to represent the WCC at any important public function. Whenever I announced that I was going to do something on my own, not as president, the establishment grew fearful and tried to stop or circumvent me. When I announced for example that I was going to Managua for the sixth anniversary of Nicaragua's liberation, they decided to send two more presidents and additional persons to hedge me. They were afraid I would say something inappropriate in favour of the Sandinistas." He was never trustworthy. He had an inherent character that he will cut the branch where he sits. He said that he is all in all in WCC but they are scared of him because he was backed by Satan and betrayed all those who trusted him. That is his integrity!

Because all Christian churches are bad, not even one good one in the WCC, he decided to shift to adapt other religions. "The net result of my rather extensive ecumenical experience is that I have not been able to spot one Christian Church in the world that is even half faithful to the way of the cross and to the teaching of the Apostles. I have gradually begun to look outside the Christian Church, to see what God is doing." During this period, he went almost all the Hindu temples in North India in the capacity of the Diocesan Metropolitan of Orthodox Church Delhi, met all swamijies, received their blessings and ate the prasadam and drank the holy water (Offerings of idols from the hands of the gentiles). He knew well that was forbidden for an ordinary Christian let alone the case of Bishop. He set an example and many bishops in Kerala followed suit. He also taught them and the Seminary students to call our beloved God as Easwaran. They promptly replaced Daivam, Karthavu, Yeshu, Christhu, Yahowa, Yahweh, and God with Easwaran. He was annoyed with WCC, an organization for which he had worked for two decades, left it and went in search of Hindu gods and hit us below our belt. What integrity to WCC and Church! Certainly when he left WCC, there was no place for him because they hated and distrusted him and thought ‘good riddance.’ If we hesitated to receive forgiveness from man and God, this will be our fate also!

AS A TEACHER IN ETHIOPIA

Paulos Gregorios started his carrier in Ethiopia as a teacher with Matriculation as his qualification. But he was very intelligent. He learnt their local language Amharic and perfected the grammar of that language. As usual even in the Education Department Ethiopia, he showed his head-weight. The devil has a peculiar character, he will help you out and out but when you are in trouble he will betray you. “Soon I found out that the whole atmosphere in the town of Jimma had changed. Every Ethiopian was hostile to me, even outside the compound. As I walked along the streets of Jimma, people would point their finger at me and say things to each other. I was being derided and mocked, I felt. Even among my own students, the old camaraderie was gone. A veil of gloom had fallen over the community; some students often seemed to avoid me. Some of the senior students, however, kept very close to me, and told me that someone had spread stories about me over the whole town. They would not tell me what the stories were. Only months later, I was to find out.

“Wherever I went out of my house, I had the feeling that I was being watched and followed, day or night. One day some of the senior boys said to me: ‘We are forbidden to come to your home.’” He was treated very badly every where. While in India we were told that he was the best friend and adviser of the Emperor.

“I felt a battery of persecution had been turned on me. It hurts me when people refuse to talk to me, and I know that they hate me or have contempt for me.”

“The response to my rude letter of protest sent to the Ministry of Education in Addis Ababa was slow in coming. When it did come, it was in the form of a curt telegram which said simply: “PACK UP YOUR THINGS AND COME TO ADDIS ABABA.” A week later, I was in Addis Ababa, with my things packed up, ready to go home to India. In Addis Ababa I went to the Ministry of Education and reported to the office of the chief, Ato Akaleworq Habtewold, Director General. I showed the telegram I had received, to his private secretary.

“For more than thirty days, I went daily to the Ministry of education and waited in the visitor’s room. Every attempt to find out why I had been called to Addis Ababa came to nothing. One day, Ato Efraim Boru, the Deputy Director General, went through all my files and saw the injustice. He was already in tension with his chief, but one day, he dragged me into the Director General’s office and asked: “Can you tell me why this man is called here? He has been hanging around for more than three weeks, and he still does not know. Ato Akaleworq, without so much as getting up from his chair, said to Ato Efrem.” I do not want to see the man’s face. Take him away.”

Mind you he was a communist and a union leader. “Meanwhile the Indian Association of Ethiopia decided to take up my case with the authorities. They convened a special meeting for the purpose, and invited me to speak. I politely thanked my fellow countrymen for the interest they were taking in my case. I told them the bare facts of the case and told them that I was suffering on account of Christ, and did not want them to go to any trouble on my behalf.”²³ Look at the charges against him, suffering for Christ? “The charges were three: (1) I had insulted Ethiopia and its Emperor; (2) I was using my position as teacher to engage in religious propaganda and to proselytize the students, which was against my contract with the Ethiopian government; (3) the real reason for my inviting the students to my home was for homosexual purposes. Thompson told me that I was to be expatriated to India as “an undesirable Alien”, and that the government of Ethiopia had already written to the government of India to that effect. My air ticket to Bombay had already been bought and I may be packed off any day now.” During the interview with director, he was able to influence him through mental suggestion and his ability to present the issue in their own language and escaped unhurt by tendering an apology and securing a transfer to elsewhere. “The bluff seemed to work, more than I could expect.” “Obviously I was bluffing.”

What was wrong with him? You have noticed that he is rude and bluffs everywhere. Thus it can be concluded that he was not normal and his integrity was questionable. Wherever he worked, he was a square peg in a round hole!

CHAPTER 10

LONE SPIRITUAL EXPERIENCE OF PG

During his very eventful 74 years, PG had a spiritual encounter. He was under the impression that it was Jesus. Up to the last he could not discern and recognise with whom he had the spiritual encounter. If ever you have an affinity with Satan, he will take you for a ride and betray you at crucial times.

PG had an attack of chicken pox, when he was in Africa. According to him chicken pox is the most terrible, horrible, fearful and dangerous disease. ²⁴“At the height of my pain, about the fourth day, I went and sat fiercely on my chair at my desk. The seat hurt, but I grit my teeth. Across the desk, on the wall, there was a colour portrait of Christ (Salmon’s Head of Christ, a not too artistic American product) facing me. I started the dialogue or debate or whatever it was. I accused God of being cruel and unfair, devoid of compassion, and letting people suffer more than they deserved. I was talking quite aloud, in the anguish of my pain and the loneliness of my room, and threw a stream of abuse at the portrait of Christ. As the torrent of words rose in crescendo, I was carried away by the rhetoric of my own petulance. Finally, and not without hesitation, I blurt out what I knew were insolent words: “Was your suffering on the cross anything comparable to what I am going through now?”²⁵ That put a stopper to the flow of my own sulky abuse. I felt I had said more than what I had a right to say. There was calm. The experience that followed is so poignant that I have no words in which to describe it with some sense of adequacy.

A voice came, distinct and clear, “Yes, my son, it was.”

Because there was a photo of Jesus, PG thought that it was Jesus. Actually, it was his god, the Satan. For PG, Jesus is a carpenter; not more than that. Jesus was not having doctorate like PG. But PG was a little less than Almighty and yet undergoing greater agony than what this carpenter had on the cross. “He Accused God.” PG calls it a dialogue. Do you think God will come to have dialogue with such a person who abuses God? No. His god will come because he abused our God. Our God cannot be called “cruel” because he is kind and compassionate. His god is very cruel. Our God cannot be called ‘unfair’ he is absolutely righteous. He called “devoid of compassion,” our God is most compassionate and kind. He charged god, “letting people suffer more than they deserve;” if ever our God were like that, we would not have been here to read this; our God is righteous; he charged his god. “Talking quite loud,” when we talk to a respectable person if our volume goes up, call you a rascal. He is shouting at his filthy god. Let us not bother. “Throw a stream of abuses to the photograph of Jesus Christ”; when he learnt Reiki he insisted to abuse God and other honourable peoples; when he became a communist, God has become foreign to him; when he became an atheist, God has become negative to him; when he became a necromancer, he did away with God; when he joined with Satan and sold his soul to him, he was able to do all that he wanted. But it does not apply to our God; the dog is barking to the Moon. Let it bark.

“As the torrent of words rose in crescendo”; make sure, it can be done in the presence of Satan only. In the presence of God we seek qualified silence. “Rhetoric,” O God, forgive him! In front of God you cannot be rhetoric because you are already speechless. His god will puff him up against our God and he calls it rhetoric. He says he was carried away by his rhetoric; absolutely sure, he was with his god. “My own petulance,” PG is a person with excellent vocabulary; if he uses the word ‘petulance’ how much should had been his bad temper and irritability to God. Who is he to show his anger to God? Look at Moses he got angry and broke the two stone tablets written by own hand of our Great God. It was divine anger! Jonah got angry due to the extra ordinary compassion of God which he could not comprehend. They have learnt a lesson; they were children of God. On the contrary we have a servant; sorry he will not become a servant, a colleague of Satan and his petulance! To say, “I blurted out” to Satan is appropriate but let him not claim that it was Jesus Christ. Mind you our God is “consuming fire.” He is mistaken. It was Satan only. “Insolent words”, impudent, rude and audacious words cannot be uttered in front of God. It can be done only in front of his god, the Satan. “My own sulky abuse”, again petulance and sullenness against God! No he was talking his filth to his god, the Devil. My Church swallowed it without any remorse. He was considered as greater than the greatest. He will be declared as a super saint.

Had it been Jesus he would have spoken in this fashion (forgive me Lord for my imprudence), “Paul Varghese, I was enjoying your dialogue with your friend Lucifer. Your suffering is really great. But since you insisted to compare my passion on the cross I shall narrate, part of it. As you are very bombastic, let me use some medical terms to explain it adequately: I was 33 ½ years at that time. My physical passion began in Gethsemane. Of the many aspects of this initial suffering, one of the greatest physiological interests is the bloody sweat. Remember Luke wrote, “And being in agony, He prayed the longer. And His sweat became as drops of blood, trickling down upon the ground.” Under great emotional stress of the kind I suffered, tiny capillaries in the sweat glands can break, thus mixing blood with sweat. This process might well have produced marked weakness and possible shock.

After the arrest in the middle of the night, I was next brought before the Sanhedrin and Caiphus, the High Priest; it is here that the first physical trauma was inflicted. A soldier struck across my face for remaining silent when questioned by Caiphus. The palace guards then blind-folded me and mockingly taunted me to identify them as they each passed by. I was beaten, spat on my face and hit by your people. I had thick beards. They held my beard between two shekels and plucked, while abusing and spitting on my face; beard, and flesh and blood came together. The poor carpenter could not bear the pain.

In the early morning, battered and bruised, dehydrated, and exhausted from a sleepless night, I was taken across the Praetorium of the Fortress Antonia, the seat of government of the Procurator of Judea, Pontius Pilate. It was then, in response to the cries of the mob, that Pilate ordered Bar- Abbas released and condemned me to scourging and crucifixion. It was a short whip made of three leather thongs connected to a handle. The leather thongs were knotted with a number of small pieces of zinc and iron, attached at various intervals to remove the skin. The scourging will leave the body as if it is ploughed. 39 times when they scourged me, my body was completely bloody and shivering. At first the thongs cut through the skin only. Then, as the blows continued, they cut deeper into the subcutaneous tissues, producing first an oozing of blood from the capillaries and veins of the skin, and finally spurting arterial bleeding from vessels in the underlying muscles. When the salty blood filled my eyes; it blinded me; I could not prevent or wipe it out, because both of my hands were tied at the back. The small balls of lead first produced large, deep bruises which are broken open by subsequent blows.

Finally the skin of the back is hanging in long ribbons and the entire area is an unrecognizable mass of torn, bleeding tissue. When it is determined by the centurion in charge that the prisoner is near death, the beating is finally stopped. The half-fainting prisoner is then untied and allowed to slump to the stone pavement, wet with His own blood.

Finally, tired of their sadistic sport and the robe is torn from my back. Already having adhered to the clots of blood and serum in the wounds, its removal causes excruciating pain and almost as though I were again being whipped the wounds once more begin to bleed. In deference to Jewish custom, the Romans returned my garments. The heavy patibulum of the cross is tied across my shoulders, and the procession of the condemned Christ, two thieves, and the execution detail of Roman soldiers headed by a centurion begins its slow journey along the Via Dolorosa.

In spite of my best efforts to walk erect, the weight of the heavy wooden beam, together with the shock produced by copious blood loss, is too much. I stumbled and fell. The rough wood of the beam gouges into the lacerated skin and muscles of the shoulders. I tried to rise, but human muscles have been pushed beyond their endurance. The centurion, anxious to get on with the crucifixion, selects a stalwart North African onlooker, Simon of Cyrene, to carry the cross. I followed, still bleeding and sweating the cold, clammy sweat of shock, until the 650 yard journey from the fortress Antonia to Golgotha is finally completed. I was offered wine mixed with myrrh, a mild analgesic mixture. I refused to drink because I am duty bound to bear the entire pain. Simon is ordered to place the patibulum on the ground and I was quickly thrown backward with my shoulders against the wood. The legionnaire feels for the depression at the front of the wrist. He drives a heavy, square, wrought-iron nail through the wrist and deep into the wood. Quickly, he moves to the other side and repeats the action, being careful not to pull the arms too tightly, but to allow some flexion and movement. The patibulum is then lifted in place at the top of the stipes and the title reading, "Jesus of Nazareth, King of the Jews," is nailed in place.

The left foot is now pressed backward against the right foot, and with both feet extended, toes down, a nail is driven through the arch of each, leaving the knees moderately flexed. I am now crucified. The body slowly sagged down with more weight on the nails in the wrists, excruciating pain shoots along the fingers and up the arms to explode in the brain — the nails in the wrists are putting pressure on the median nerves.

Then they made a deep hole on the ground to erect the cross. When they put the cross into the hole, along with my body, I felt as if the three nails disowned my body. Yes this was the culmination of pain. I was unable to breath. I pushed myself upward to avoid this stretching torment; I placed my full weight on the nail through the feet. Again there is the searing agony of the nail tearing through the nerves between the metatarsal bones of the feet. At this point, as the arms fatigue, great waves of cramps sweep over the muscles, knotting them in deep, relentless, throbbing pain. With these cramps comes the inability to push myself upward. Hanging by the arms, the pectoral muscles are paralyzed and the intercostals muscles are unable to act. Air can be drawn into the lungs, but cannot be exhaled. I fought to raise myself in order to get even one short breath. Finally, carbon dioxide builds up in the lungs and in the blood stream and the cramps partially subside. Spasmodically, I was able to push myself upward to exhale and bring in the life-giving oxygen.

I experienced hours of limitless pain, cycles of twisting, joint-rending cramps, intermittent partial asphyxiation, searing pain where tissue is torn from my lacerated back as I moved up and down against the rough wood. Then another agony begins - - a terrible crushing pain deep in the chest as the pericardium slowly fills with serum and begins to compress the heart. "My strength is dried up like a potsherd; and my tongue cleaved to my jaws; and thou has brought me into the dust of death." A sponge soaked in cheap, sour wine which is the staple drink of the Roman legionaries, is lifted to my lips. I did not take any of the liquid.

I remembered again the 22nd Psalm, the 14th verse: "I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint; my heart is like wax; it is melted in the midst of my bowels." My body is now in extremes, and I can feel the chill of death creeping through my tissues. With one last surge of strength, I once again pressed my torn feet against the nail, straightened my legs, took a deeper breath, and uttered my last cry, "Father! Into thy hands I commit my spirit."

After that they pierced a spear into my heart to rip it open. It did not pain me at all because I was already dead! Now you compare your chicken pox with my crucifixion? But one thing, I would have suffered a hundred times more to redeem you; yet you say that “redemption” and “atonement” are bad theology.” No, bear in mind, it was the plan of my Heavenly Father!

What did PG hear and who is the owner of that voice? Ponder for a moment. Abraham, Moses and Joshua fell on the ground and said that they were “dust and ashes,” God responded. Did you see any humility in this ‘bishop sans humility’? Here is PG the great! He wanted freedom from God, alienation from God, abusing God, scolding God, blaming God and questioning God. Immediately like an obedient servant a voice is heard, “Yes Sir, it was.” It was Satan. PG did not have discernment.

This is the way the devil takes us for a ride. Paul is teaching us to beware of Satan. “Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices” 2 Corinthians 2:11.

He wanted to practice Reiki, another study conducted by Satan. He wanted to study Yoga, yet another study conducted by Satan. It needs vacating of the Holy Spirit from our heart and mind and installing Satan but in the case of Yoga, we have to surrender ourselves to Shiva, he is the guru of ashtanga Yoga. Eswaran!

PG wanted to live in this world after his death; he learnt the trick of the trade from Mockachi Occado. He calls him a prophet, while he was an agent of the Devil. PG was a Communist. They are Atheists. He wanted to abuse God. Satan was happy. He scoffed the Holy Bible; Satan was very happy. It appeared to be alright for him. If you please Satan, he will answer all your questions in the name of anyone. Be aware, your encounter was with the evil spirit. On the other hand, if you ponder how to get in touch with the Holy Spirit, learn the humility of Jesus. Absolute surrender is needed. God will help you.

If ever he had a semblance of humility, he would not have self exalted as “Next Prime Minister of India”; he would have thought twice when he bestowed the name, ‘Gregory of India.’ From the beginning till end he was a sick person, both physically and mentally and he called himself “Hasiyo deelan,” Our Healer; education department of Ethiopia charged sheeted him in a most disgraceful manner; Communist people disowned him at the end, however he was nicknamed “Red Bishop;” in the WCC they were afraid of him and used to send two other presidents to cover (hedge) him because he may betray them at any point of time; when he scoffed the Holy Bible it became evident that he was not a worshipper of the God of the Bible. Will the Church ever realise the folly and take corrective steps such as the following:

- a) Remove the defective books from the curriculum of the Theological Seminary.
- b) Rename the organisations in favour of deserving saintly people.
- c) As Lenin's bust is removed from Leningrad and Stalin's bust removed from Stalingrad, his mortal remains may be given a decent burial elsewhere; certainly not along with our Saints in Seminary Chapel.

May the Good Lord Bless All of Us!

A FEW DENIALS OF PG

When an ordinary person tells something and disowns it, he is said to be a liar. If a great man tells something and disowns it, we must call it only a denial, very gently!

1. Joice Thottakkad, “In the children’s essay book” it is written that you went to Africa as a “missionary.”

PG: No; the word “missionary” is nonsense and I never used it. JT, JJ, MK. X As he had studied the life of David Livingston, he said many places that he had worked as a missionary in the Dark Continent to sacrifice his life. Liars forget what they said earlier. Therefore, he denied it. But unfortunately both the statements are documented!

2. “I never wanted to become a bishop.” X PG was very ambitious. He was a Communist. He had alienated himself from God because God is not able to distribute the wealth equally. It was due to his rebellious reaction as he could not continue his studies due to financial problems. He returned to the Church at the age of 38 without even becoming an altar boy with the sole intention of becoming a bishop to head the WCC. Fr. M. V. George was set aside from ordination as a bishop because his mother was a Marthomite. PG contacted all priests and bishops to plead the case of Fr. M. V. George. This was an intelligent and strategic move of PG. M.V. was suggested by him by then; and he went from pillar to post to secure vote for PG and he became a bishop, much against the wishes of the senior bishops who said in the Synod “he is wise and the learned alright but he is a Communist man, freemason, and necromancer.” The synod was unanimous in declaring him “Unworthy” 3 times and once rejected in his presence. Yet he became a bishop much against the wishes of the Church. It was through the back door and by his trick. Now he says: “I never wanted to become a Bishop.” Sweet denial! Ref: hand written memorandum. He published it but did deliver it neither to the Catholicos nor to the Synod. He published it and Circulated among the people from 1965 to 1974. In the bargain see how he is reserving his seat as the principal of the Theological Seminary also! Our synod was gullible.

3. JT: What are your achievements?

PG: “I do not claim that I have achieved anything. X Later in the same interview he denied this and said “I have achieved a lot of things than many other people.”

4. We have not received even one manuscript of the Bible. PCD X In the same chapter itself he denied this and said that we have received one manuscript from Leningrad in the year 1008.

5. PG: “Liberation theology is superficial. I am against it” JT, JJ, MK. X

“But, on the international stage, he stood shoulder to shoulder with the liberation forces and the socialist camp along with two other famous Malayalis, M.M. Thomas and Bishop Paulose Mar Paulose of the Chaldean Church,” Mar Gregoriosente mathavum Marxisavum.

6. And on ‘secularism’? “I am convinced that until humanity sees that the secular civilization, which denies the centrality of God, has been the greatest mistake in our history, it cannot find the way forward” X (This is from the same man who once opined that being anti - communist was to be anti - Christ!). ‘A proud Indian’ by T.V. R. Shenoy.

7. He preached Communism from the age of 15 to 73 and again, he flirted closer to Communism than was needed (There by earning the nickname of the 'Red Bishop'). X Towards the end he denied what he said in the beginning, however, he confessed that they too became "dogmatic, corrupt, and power hungry as anyone else."

8. From 1947 to 1950 I served as a teacher in the Government schools in Ethiopia, teaching all the way from primary to secondary and also at College level. X Graduation from the college is essential to be appointed in the school. With only matriculation "college level?"

9. Professors in Yale University knew nothing. X I found the Yale Graduate School excellent in modern western philosophy, especially in understanding German philosophers like Kant and Husserl. Sweet denial

10. Professors in Oxford knew nothing. X In Oxford, I had great teachers there like Michael Polanyi, who initiated me into some of the problems of human knowing and intellectual certainty. My philosophical pilgrimage, which began with an introductory course at Goshen, and had substantially developed at Princeton and Yale, reached a new level of maturity at Oxford. My mind developed by reacting critically to teachers like Gilbert Rye and Ian Ramsey, Henry Chadwick and R. C. Zanier. Sweet denial!

11. There was not a single person who could guide me. S. X

In Oxford, I had great teachers there like Michael Polaner, who initiated me into some of the problems of human knowing and intellectual certainty. My philosophical pilgrimage, which began with an introductory course at Goshen, and had substantially developed at Princeton and Yale, reached a new level of maturity at Oxford. My mind developed by reacting critically to teachers like Gilbert Rye and Ian Ramsey, Henry Chadwick and R. C. Zanier. Sweet denial of a liar!
